Vessels Battle Atlantic Storm

HALIFAX, Sept. 24—(AP)—Six ocean-going vessels tonight battled the fury of a hurricane some 150 miles off Halifax. The United States army transport General M. B. Sturgis, carrying 844 displaced persons to new homes in Canada, was directly in the path of the storm.

The weather bureau here said Sable Island—a desolate said spit 100 miles off the Nova Scotia coast—was lashed by 75-mile an hour winds. So far there have been no reports of shipwrecks or injuries.
 The hurricane is moving parallel to the Nova Scotia coast, heading straight for Newfoundland which was sideswiped by a similar storm a week ago.

Twins Born at 44th Ave., Federal Bldg., Denver

DENVER, Sept. 25—(AP)—Twin girls were born Friday to Mrs. Thomas G. Hobelman, jr., 26, in her husband's automobile at West 44th avenue and Federal boulevard.
 The husband had sufficient warning to stop the car and call for help, so that a physician living nearby and a police surgeon were on hand in time. The mother and twins were reported in satisfactory condition.

C. of C. Headquarters Of Forget-Me-Not Sale
