Kindergarten At Woodburn Opens Monday

WOODBURN — Woodburn kindergarten opens Monday, October 4, in the Presbyterian church basement, Garfield at Third st. Mrs. Gail Wengenroth is instructor. Children of four and five years will be accepted for enrollment, hours are to be 8:45 a.m. to 11 a.m. five days a week. Mrs. Wengenroth, who was in charge of the pre-school last spring, states that anyone wishing to enroll may call her, phone 1721, or Mrs. Carl Magnuson, red 139, president of the Kindergarten Mothers' organization.

Two terms are planned, first lasting to mid-December. Spring term will probably open in February or March thus giving the children a "rest" during the bad weather and holiday season. Children may be enrolled for one term or the entire school year.

Children who are five years old may ride to the kindergarten on school buses if they live on the bus route.

Kindergarten Mothers' group will hold a cooked food sale to raise money for necessary equipment for the school at the Woodburn Meat Market Saturday, October 2, at 1 p.m. Contributions to the sale will be welcomed, Mrs. Magnuson said.
