"THE YOUNG IDEA" By Mossler

Bodies of Six Valley Men to Arrive in U.S.

Bodies of six Willamette valley men who lost their lives in Europe during World War II are being returned to the United States aboard an army transport for burial in their home cities.

Their remains were disinterred from military cemeteries in France and Holland. They are among 35 being returned to Oregon at the request of relatives.

Included in the list to arrive soon are:

Sgt. James A. Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Richardson, Salem route 5, box 48. A Salem high school graduate, Richardson went overseas in August, 1944, and was killed in action in France on Nov. 12, 1944. He was employed by the Southern Pacific company before entering the army.

Lt. William Gale Bindshadler was the son of Mrs. Theda Bindshadler, Lebanon school teacher. He was born near Monroe, Ore., May 10, 1914, was graduated from Lebanon high school and attend-

Milton Meyers Named to Top Masonic Post

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Milton L. Meyers of Salem was elected as deputy grand master of the royal and select masters in a meeting of the Masonic order of the general grand council of royal and select masters of the United States here today.

Officers were elected as more than 400 representatives of local councils with 200,000 members opened their two-day 23rd triennial assembly.

At the same time, delegates representing 750,000 members of the general grand chapter of royal arch masons were registering for their sesquicentennial convocation, tomorrow and Thursday.

Meyers, a member of Salem Pacific lodge 50, AF & AM, is past grand master of Oregon and past master of the local lodge. He is also a member of the Hodson council, royal and select Masons.

20-30 Club to Sponsor Three Stage Plays

Salem's 20-30 club will sponsor a series of three Broadway stage plays this season. It was announced Tuesday night in a meeting of the organization at the Gold Arrow restaurant.

Gene Malecki, publicity chairman, said the first of the series, "All My Sons," will be presented at the Salem high school auditorium the night of October 24. Two other plays, "But Not Goodbye," and "John Loves Mary," will follow on later dates, Malecki said.

Malecki said all three productions will feature the Civic Drama Guild of New York, a well-known stage group. Proceeds from the plays will go to the Salem 20-30 club's benefit fund. The organization sponsored a similar series of plays last season.

Heading up the play promotion committee is General Chairman Dal Sullivan. Other committee chairman are Wes Goodrich, ticket sales; John Campbell and Charles Wakefield, public booth ticket sales; Ron Patton, stage and mail ticket sales; Malecki and Ken Dunnigan, publicity; and Bob Sandstrom, mail order folders.
