

Past Ruths Are Honor Guests

Past Ruths were honor guests at the meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Tuesday night at the Masonic temple. Mrs. J. Edgar Reay gave a tribute to the Ruths and the courtesy girls presented them with flowers.

Visitors from out of town were Mrs. V. L. Jean of Maricopa, Calif.; Mrs. Mabel Stevenson of Duluth, Minn., and J. B. Blodgett of Central City, Iowa. Hostesses were Mrs. Reay and Mrs. R. D. Paris.

Stones Visit Here From South

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence N. Stone (Joy Cooley) have arrived in Salem from their home in Los Angeles for a twelve day visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cooley. Mr. Stone will accompany Mr. Cooley and a group of friends on a deer hunting party to southern Oregon.

Sunday a family dinner will be held at the Bruce Cooley home in Dallas. Mr. Cooley will show movies of his family and a trip to Canada. Attending will be Mr. and Mrs. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cooley, Cheryl and Vicki Susan of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Orval Cooley and Michael of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Cooley, Ross, Diane and Joanne of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cooley, the hosts and their sons, Loren and Gary.

Lt. and Mrs. Kelson Lowery and children, Carolyn Zoe and Mack, left Tuesday for Coronado, Calif., where he will be stationed with the navy. Mrs. Lowery and the children have been here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Malson, since early summer. Lt. Lowery recently returned from duty in northern waters.

Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star will meet Saturday night for the annual homecoming celebration at Masonic Temple with a covered dish dinner at 6:30 o'clock preceding the 8 o'clock meeting. Initiation will also be held.

Silverbell circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will meet Friday night at the Salem Woman's clubhouse. A party will honor members having birthdays from April to September.

Miss Irene de Lisle, president of the Salem Soroptomist club, Mrs. Marie Ling and Mrs. Abner K. Kline will attend the Soroptomist Northwest Regional conference in Spokane at the Davenport hotel this weekend.

Miss Peggy Sears was hostess to members of her club Tuesday night at the North Winter street home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. James Sears.

Mrs. Gene Vandensynde presided at luncheon Tuesday afternoon at the Marion hotel in compliment to her club. The afternoon hours were spent informally at the Vandensynde home on E street.

Mrs. L. D. Wyatt celebrated her 82nd birthday on Monday at her North Cottage street home with her daughter, Mrs. E. Forster and four granddaughters from Lebanon, present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Areas left Wednesday for the Columbia Gorge hotel to attend the annual convention of the Association of Oregon hospitals.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watson of Portland are spending a few days in the capital and are registered at the Marion hotel.

Add Shortening

Mrs. O. W. Olson's recipe for sunbeam rolls should have 1/2 cup shortening in it. The shortening was omitted in the story in The Statesman Wednesday morning.
