Clubs Resume Meetings For the Winter . . .

Madame President is taking the spotlight these early autumn days as clubs resume their meetings for the winter season. Today we have pictured a few of the presidents of the larger clubs in Salem, which are actively engaged in civic and philanthropic affairs during the year.

AAUW Luncheon Meeting

Prof. William H. Winslow, a member of the Willamette university law school faculty, will be the guest speaker at the one o'clock luncheon meeting of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women on Saturday afternoon, October 16 at the Marion hotel. He will report on the UNESCO to which he was a representative last spring of the American Association of Law Schools.

This will be a membership luncheon at which all new members will be honored. The hospitality committee, headed by Miss Marjorie Chester, will assist the membership committee of which Mrs. Deena Davis is the chairman. Reservations for the luncheon must be made Thursday or Friday morning with Mrs. Paul E. Wilson or Mrs. B. B. Boylan.

Dads - Mothers to Gather

University of Oregon Mothers and Dads will hold a joint dinner meeting on Monday night at the Mayflower hall at 6 o'clock. All new or old mothers and dads are invited to attend. Speakers will be Ernest Haycox, Portland, president of the state Dads, and Mrs. Walter Thorne, Portland, president of the state Mothers. Mrs. John Carson is social chairman and in charge of arrangements for the dinner are Mrs. John Caughell, and Mrs. Hollis Huntington.

Fashion Bridge on Friday

A number of Salem women have already made table reservations for the Junior Woman's club annual fashion bridge benefit Friday night at the chamber of commerce at 8 o'clock. Those desiring reservations may call Mrs. Robert Johnson or Mrs. Charles Fearing and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Verne Robb at Miller's.

Fashions will be shown by Miller's and Miss Harriet Ness will be the commentator. Models will include Mrs. James Mohatt, Mrs. P. J. Boyer, Mrs. F. H. Newell, Mrs. C. Stanley, Mrs. Sam Campbell, Mrs. Fred Gast, Mrs. Ralph Atwood, Mrs. Peery T. Buren, Mrs. J. Garth Wilkinson and Miss Lucille Satter.

Bridge Luncheons . . .

On the social agenda for the coming week will be two luncheons for which Mrs. Urilin S. Page and her sister, Mrs. Vern W. Miller, will be hostesses at the Page home on East Lincoln street. Guests have been invited to luncheons on Thursday and Friday afternoons with bridge to be in play following. Bouquets of autumn flowers and leaves will provide the decorative note.

Heading Women of Rotary this year is Mrs. Abner K. Kline. The group holds luncheon meetings once a month and contributes to charitable events during the season. A membership tea is slated for later in the fall and once a year they entertain the Rotary men. (Kennell-Ellis).

Dinner Dances . . .

By Jeryme English
Statesman Society Editor

The coming weekend will be highlighted with several dinners and dances to be given by clubs and organizations.

Reserve Officers Dance

On Friday night, October 15 will be the formal dinner dance of the Marion chapter, Reserve Officers association at the Legion club. The social hour will begin at 8:30 o'clock with dinner and dancing to the music of Elvin Thomas and his orchestra following at 9 o'clock.

All reserve officers of the air corps, navy and army and their wives are invited to attend. Men are to wear their uniforms and the women will be informal dress. Major Edward Houser is president of the chapter and Lt. Col. Homer Lyon, secretary. Major Harlan Judd is in general charge of the affair and assisting on the committee are Lt. Col. Eugene Laird, Lt. Comdr. Carl Cover and Lt. Roy Rice.

First Anniversary Party

The Exchange club, which was organized a year ago, will celebrate its first anniversary at a buffet dinner and dance Friday night at the Salem Golf club. Hours for the informal affair are between 8 and 12 o'clock. Members, their wives and guests are bidden to the affair.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes William L. Phillips, Jr., Otto Skopil, Jr., Peery T. Buren and John Hay.

Dance Clubs to Open Season

The Cama club dance is also slated for Friday night at Crystal Gardens with Claude Bird's orchestra to play for dancing between 9:30 and 12:30 o'clock. The Monday Night Dancing club will hold its first formal dinner dance of the season Saturday night at the Marion hotel. Dinner will be at 7:30 o'clock with dancing to follow from 9 to 12 o'clock to the music of Claude Bird and his orchestra.

President of the Salem Junior Woman's club this year is Mrs. Cedric T. Reaney. The club engages in many worthwhile service projects and entertains with several dances and benefit parties during the year. First event of the season for the group will be the fall fashion bridge Friday night at the chamber of commerce. (Kennell-Ellis).

Tells Betrothal . . .

Romantic announcement made Saturday night at the Alpha Chi Omega sorority house on the Willamette university campus was the engagement of Miss Mary Kathryn Phelps to Robert N. Phillips, Jr. The news was revealed at dinner when a poem was read telling the "sisters" to look into the jack-o-lantern for the identity of the engaged couple. Inside the lantern were two figures, a witch and a scarecrow, on which were the pictures of the duo.

Miss Phelps, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Phelps of Portland, attended Willamette for three years and majored in English literature. Her fiance, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert N. Phillips of Salem, is a senior at the University of Oregon, majoring in business administration. His fraternity is Pi Kappa Phi. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr. is president of the newly organized Salem Army-Navy League, which held its charter tea on Tuesday afternoon at the H. G. Maison home. The league will hold monthly social meetings with several special events scheduled to take place during the year. All officers wives are eligible for membership. (Kennell-Ellis).

Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer is president of the Salem Lions auxiliary for the ensuing year. All wives of Lions club members are eligible for membership. The group holds monthly meetings and entertains twice a year with parties for the men. Several large service projects are undertaken by the auxiliary during the year. (Kennell-Ellis).

Directing activities of the Marion-Polk county Medical auxiliary will be Mrs. Willard J. Stone, whose husband is Marion county public health officer. The group meets monthly at homes of members with programs and social evenings. Once a year a joint meeting or party is held with the doctors. (Kennell-Ellis).

It's Travel Time . . .

An unusual number of Salem folk are planning extensive trips during the fall months this year, by plane, train and car.

Mrs. B. O. Schucking is leaving Sunday, October 17 on an interesting six weeks plane trip which will first take her to New York City for a week to visit her brother-in-law, William Graf. She will then fly south to Miami to attend the national convention of the Florists Telegraph Delivery association. After a week in Miami Mrs. Schucking will leave for Havana, Jamaica, Panama, Guatemala and Mexico City. She will fly home by way of San Francisco for a few days stop, returning to Salem the first of December.

Mrs. Ira Fitts and her mother, Mrs. Mabel Staples, are leaving by car Monday for a several weeks visit in the south. They will be in Santa Monica, Calif., with Mrs. Fitts' sister, Mrs. Lawrence McEntee, and will visit another sister, Miss Lucy Staples in Alhambra. The latter formerly resided here when teaching in the public schools. Enroute south the travelers will stop in Klamath Falls for a visit with Mrs. Fitts' son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Fredricks.

Mrs. Clinton Standish and daughter, Elaine, are enroute for McCook, Nebraska on Tuesday for a fortnight's visit with Mr. and Mrs. William Schultz, formerly of Salem. Next weekend they will attend the Notre Dame-Nebraska game at Lincoln.

Local Talent Presents . . .

A dramatic program, studio thirteen, is being presented by each Sunday night at 9 o'clock by a group of Salem young people, Beverly Bell, Doris Frohn, Lyle Lorentz and Paul Ward. These ambitious and talented young players select, cast, plan and rehearse their own productions.

Their most recent offering, a comedy entitled "Ring Once for Central," was marked by intelligent characterization, a lively tempo and able projection, according to Miss Margaret Burroughs of the Salem high school faculty.

"The Ring of General Macias," will be given tonight on KOCO at nine o'clock, on the program titled studio 13.

Presiding at the meetings of the Salem branch, American Association of University Women this year is Mrs. Vernon Wiscarson. Luncheon meetings are slated for each month and always a highlight of the winter season is the annual Christmas musicale. Classes in literature, radio, arts, music and international relations are sponsored by the branch. (Kennell-Ellis).

Mrs. Ernest C. Richards is president of Town and Gown, one of the larger women's groups in the city. Monthly tea meetings with musical programs and speakers are held from October through May. Several hundred townswomen and Willamette faculty women and wives comprise the membership. (Kennell-Ellis).

Serving as president of the Salem Woman's club this year is Mrs. Guy N. Hickok. Over a hundred women maintain membership in the club, which is engaged in many service projects and conducts classes in fine arts and literature. Benefit affairs are also sponsored by the group to carry on the philanthropic work. (Kennell-Ellis).
