League to Hear Speaker

Miss Irene Sweeney, organization secretary for the League of Women Voters will be the speaker at the October 13 meeting of the Salem league at the home of Mrs. Hal DeSart, 810 Academy street. The meeting will be a luncheon. Mrs. Blair Stewart, state League president will also be present.

Miss Sweeney, who served as a major in the WAC, was formerly field secretary of the Indiana League of Women Voters and executive secretary of leagues in Minnesota. She will discuss plans to awaken citizens to take part in government.

In line with the League's work in interesting citizens in the election, a pamphlet has been published and will be available from Mrs. DeSart and at the October 23 meeting of the Salem Women's club. The pamphlet "Voters' Service" gives arguments for and against eleven measures on the November ballot. Also included are voting records of incumbents and platforms of candidates running for congress.

Salore, business girls club of the YWCA will meet at 7:45 o'clock Monday night and will make table decorations for the business girls conference to be held in Portland on November 6 and 7.
