

Pears, Apples Potatoes in Harvest Scene

Potatoes, pears and apples continue to dominate the seasonal farm harvest picture with Bend, Klamath Falls and Hood River reporting the main labor shortage to the Oregon state employment service headquarters.

Most urgent need for fruit workers comes from Hood River, where 1,200 more can be given jobs for the remainder of October. Furnished cabins still are available but bedding and utensils must be brought along.

Klamath Falls is asking for 500 more potato diggers while the Bend and Madras areas can use 400 for similar work, as long as the weather remains favorable. Workers should be prepared to furnish their own shelters.

The Medford district will be busy with late fruit for the remainder of the month but only 125 outside workers are needed. Trailer space and camping sites are available.

Ontario continues its call for 200 men in the onion, beet and lettuce fields while apples and potatoes also are being harvested. The jobs will last until December and some tent houses still are unoccupied.

September Traffic Toll Year's Highest

Oregon traffic accidents claimed 48 lives in September to establish the high death toll for the year, Secretary of State Earl T. Newby reported Friday.

The previous 1948 traffic peak was in May and June when 42 persons died in each of the two months. September fatalities, 38 of which occurred on highways outside of any city or town, brings the number of lives lost this year to 299. This is 23 less than in the same period in 1947.

'Misleaders' of Labor Draw Wallace Scorn

SEATTLE, Oct. 9—(AP)—Henry Wallace said last night that "misleaders of labor" in some unions are "more dangerous to organized labor than the Taft-Hartley act itself."

The presidential candidate, in a speech prepared for delivery in a state armory here, also said communism is "far less of a danger to America than 'the irresponsible use of the word 'communism' to create a psychological iron curtain in the American mind."

He chose Seattle—a strong union city—to make what was probably his sharpest attack on what he often calls "misleaders of labor."

Wallace said: "We have seen proud, democratic unions confused and broken more effectively from within than by pressures from without."

Attend Convention in Florida

FOUR CORNERS—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Blackman (above) of the Four Corners area are in Miami, Fla., attending a national convention of mail carriers and their auxiliary. Blackman, until recently a mail carrier in this district, is the official Oregon delegate.

Truman Avers Republicans on '1929 Course'

BUFFALO, Oct. 8—(AP)—President Truman said last night the GOP is following the "same fatal course" that led to disaster in 1929 and to "privileges for the few and neglect of the many."

Mr. Truman climaxed a campaign through Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's own back yard with a speech here tonight.

The republicans, Mr. Truman said, have one main asset in the campaign—tremendous financial support. He said their main liability is—the issues.

"They have concluded," he said, "that their record is so bad on the important issues of the day, that they can't even discuss them."

Local Students Active on UO Publications

Four Salem students have received appointments to the business staff of the Oregon Daily Emerald, daily newspaper of the University of Oregon, it was announced this week end.

Robert Zeller, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Zeller, 1795 Church st., is the newly designated assistant advertising manager of the publication.

Irene McLeod, daughter of Mrs. L. C. McLeod, 365 N. 13th st., has been appointed a layout worker. Contract workers are Jeanne Hoffman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoffman, 373 State.

Idaho Farms Offered to Vets

Veterans of World War II will have preference on 46 farm units in the Minidoka project in Idaho, according to word received by H. C. Saalfeld, Marion county veterans service officer.

The area, recently opened for homestead entry, consists of lands which have never been cropped, but have still loam, he said, and are very productive. Sagebrush clearing and preparation for irrigation must be done before the land is ready for production.

Successful applicants also will receive a two - barrack type building 20 by 120 feet in size. Application blanks may be obtained from the county service officer or the United States department of interior, bureau of reclamation in Washington, D. C.

Rose Society's Delegation to Hear National President

A large delegation from the Salem Rose society will travel to Corvallis, October 20 to hear a lecture by George Sweetser, president of the American Rose society, who is touring the western states.

Sweetser has scheduled two speaking appearances in the state, one at Corvallis and one at Portland. He is honorary vice president of the American Horticulture society, member of the Pennsylvania Horticulture society and executive secretary of the New England Rose society. An expert on rose soils, plants and fertilizer, he has been growing roses over 50 years.

City Hall Open House Delayed

Formal dedication and open house for the newly remodeled city hall will be postponed until October 25, it was announced by Mayor R. L. Elstrom.

The postponement (from a scheduled October 11) is occasioned by a heavy city council agenda next Monday and the mayor's absence from the city that night.

But citizens are welcome to attend the council meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. and to look over the new offices on the city hall third floor, Mayor Elstrom said. The city will have guides on hand.
