

Play-by-Play Of 4th World Series Battle

CLEVELAND, Oct. 9 (AP)—The play-by-play account of today's fourth series game is as follows:

FIRST INNING
Boston—Holmes sent an easy fly to Judnick in short right. Doby hit a little foul fly to Hegan to the left of home plate. Torgeson drove a long drive to the center field fence for a double. It looked like a sure triple but Torgeson tripped midway between second and third and had to hustle back to second as the throw came in from Doby. Elliott sent a high foul fly to Hegan to the right of home plate. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Cleveland—Mitchell whistled a line single through the center of the diamond. Torgeson made a diving stop of Doby's wicked smash and slipped the ball to Sain, who was covering first. For the putout, Mitchell took second. Boudreau ranned a high fly inside the first base line scoring Mitchell, which went for a double, but was out trying to stretch it into a triple. Holmes to Dark to Elliott. Boudreau and third base Coach Bill McKechnie argued bitterly with National League Umpire Bill Stewart who called the play. Gordon bounced out. Dark to Torgeson. One run, two hits, no errors, none left.

SECOND INNING
Boston—Rickert lined to Robinson who made a nice gloved-hand catch. Mitchell came in fast to take Mike McCormick's short fly in left. Boudreau ran out into short left field to camp under Mast's high pop. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cleveland—Dark made a nice stop of Keltner's sharp grounder and whipped him out at first. Judnick bounced to Torgeson who made the out at first. Unassisted. Robinson singled sharply to right field. Hegan lofted his pop. Dark behind third base. No runs, no hits, no errors, one left.

THIRD INNING
Boston—Stanky punched a single to center. Sain rolled a sacrifice bunt along the first base line and was out. Hegan to Robinson. Holmes hit to Keltner who threw him out while holding. Stanky on second. Gordon took Dark's high pop in short right. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Cleveland—Gromek struck out. Elliott scooped up Mitchell's roller and throw him out. Doby connected with a high fast ball and drove it into the crowd behind the right field fence in home run, the first of the series. The blow travelled approximately 400 feet. Dark threw out Boudreau. One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

FOURTH INNING
Boston—Robinson fumbled Torgeson's easy roller on the first base line but recovered in time to toss to Gromek for the out. Elliott rolled out to Keltner on a close play. Rickert singled to center. Boudreau came up with M. McCormick's sharp grounder near second base and flipped to Gordon for the force play on Rickert. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Cleveland—Gordon tapped back to the mound and was thrown out. Sain to Torgeson. Keltner fouled to Elliott. Judnick struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

FIFTH INNING
Boston—Mast grounded out. Boudreau to Robinson. Boudreau also threw out Stanky. Sain slashed a single into left field. Gordon raced into foul territory to grab Holmes' high fly. No runs, one hit, no errors, none left.

Cleveland—Robinson rolled to Torgeson far to the right of first base and when Sain forgot to cover the bag, Robinson was credited with an infield single. Hegan sacrificed Robinson to second. Elliott to Torgeson. Gromek fouled to Dark. Sain speared Mitchell's tap and tossed him out at first. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

SIXTH INNING
Boston—Doby hauled down Dark's liner in dead center. Torgeson walked. Elliott bounced into a double play. Boudreau to Gordon to Robinson. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

Cleveland—Stanky came in fast for Doby's roller and threw him out at first. Boudreau flied to M. McCormick. Gordon fouled to Rickert in the left field corner. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

SEVENTH INNING
Boston—Rickert hammered a home run deep into the right field stands about 400 feet away. It was Boston's first run after 23 consecutive scoreless innings. M. McCormick belted a single into left field. Mast bruised his hand on a foul bunt and took time out for repairs. Mast popped to Keltner to the right of the mound. Stanky chased Mitchell back to the 93-foot sign in left field for his long fly. Gromek tossed out Sain. One run, two hits, no errors, one left.

EIGHTH INNING
Boston—Kennedy replaced Judnick in right field for the Indians. Holmes flied to Doby who made an over-the-shoulder catch in front of the center field stands. 400 feet away. Dark popped to Boudreau near second base. Torgeson sliced a double into left field. Hegan collided with Keltner but held on to Elliott's high pop just in front of the mound. No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

Cleveland—Hegan popped to Stanky. Mast fielded Gromek's chop in front of the plate and tossed him out. Dark had a beautiful stop at Mitchell's sizzler past the mound and got his man with an off balance throw to Torgeson. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

NINTH INNING
Boston—Rickert looked at a sharp-breaking curve for a called third strike. It was Gromek's first strikeout of the game. M. McCormick also was called out on strikes. Salkeld worked the point to 3 and 2 and then lined right into Kennedy's hands. No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

YOUTH BAGS DEER

'Cats Beat Gophers in Thriller

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 9 (AP)—Northwestern's undefeated Wildcats roaring back from a 16-0 deficit in the first nine minutes of play, today passed over Minnesota's undefeated line for a 19-16 triumph. They played before a capacity crowd of 47,000 in Dyche stadium.

The victory was Northwestern's third consecutive and second Big Nine triumph, while the defeat was Minnesota's first after non-conference wins over Washington and Nebraska.

Northwestern, which had blanked UCLA 19-0 and Purdue, 21-0, saw its goal line crossed twice by an alert band of Gophers, but charged back to victory on Don Burson's accurate forward passing.

All of the scoring was concentrated in the first half. Minnesota hammered across a safety and two touchdowns for a 16-0 lead before the careless Wildcats realized they had a tough assignment against the hulking Gopher line.

But the Wildcats — now a strong favorite to represent the Big Nine in the Rose Bowl game New Year's day—rallied courageously for a touchdown late in the first period, and two more in the second.

Football Clubs Suffer Upsets

Minnesota's early handling of Northwestern was a shocker. Once the Wildcats, now the No. 1 contender for the Rose Bowl trip from the midwest, switched to the air the Gophers were done. In games that had a semblance of form, Kansas belted Iowa State, 29 to 7; Penn punished Princeton 29 to 7, and Duke finally found a scoring punch with Navy the victim, 28 to 7.

North Carolina proved it wasn't a one-man team as four players scored against a rugged Wake Forest outfit, 28 to 6. However, the famed Charles Justice did register once.

Georgia Tech, another of the nation's unbeaten clubs, crushed Washington & Lee 27 to 0 with Halfback Bob McCoy leading the offense. In an all-Southern conference affair, Georgia uncovered a new fullback in Johnny Tillitiski and hopped Kentucky 35 to 12. Tennessee also found a new punch and smared Chattanooga 26 to 0.

Home Nursing Classes Due

New classes in home nursing will start Tuesday in some Marion county schools, Mrs. Ralph E. Moody, chairman of home nursing for Marion county chapter, American Red Cross, announced Saturday.

At Mill City high school classes will be on Tuesday and Thursday of each week until the course is completed, and at Aumsville, Turner and Sublimity on Mondays and Wednesdays. Mrs. Joseph Silberman of Stayton is to be the instructor.

Classes at Salem high school will begin October 18.

Registrations are now being received at the local Red Cross office for an adult class to be conducted at the chapter headquarters. Date will be set as soon as registration is completed.

New Series of Vet Bonds Due

PORTLAND, Oct. 9 (AP)—The state department of veterans' affairs advisory committee has decided to issue a third series of $5,000,000 in bonds to finance the state veterans farm and home loan program.

State Director William F. Gaarenström said the funds remaining from the $10,000,000 of bonds sold during the last three years would last through December 1. The date of the new bond sale will be announced later.

The committee reported Oregon veterans are borrowing more than $500,000 a month on the loan program. Most of the loans are to finance homes.

Carl Church, former veterans' administration contact officer in Salem, was named field representative in northwest Oregon.

Gates Man Observes His 94th Birthday

GATES—Lewis T. Henness observed his 94th birthday September 29 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lily Lake, with whom he lives.

Mr. Henness, as he is familiarly known, was born on a donation claim land between Mehama and Stayton in 1854. His parents crossed the prairie with teams of oxen in 1852 and settled in that region, moving to Gates in 1864.

Mr. Henness has three brothers living, Ephram, 99, Albany, and Lincoln, 85, Gates. Besides Mrs. Lake, another daughter, Mrs. Fred Ratzberger, lives in Salem and a son, Glen, in Gates.

Hunters Send In Deer Tags

With only slightly more than a week of the deer season past, nearly six hundred hunters have mailed in their deer reports to the game commission. Reports of kills have come from all 34 counties of the state that are open to deer hunting.

The highest percentage of deer-kills reports coming in at this early date have come from Tillamook county with Klamath, Lake and Deschutes counties following in that order. One hunter reported that he was unable to hunt, and at least one hunter had eventually given up for he reported a no kill. All deer hunters are reminded that they must send the reports in even if they are not successful in bagging a buck.

Cleveland Big Favorite Today

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 9 (AP)—The Cleveland Indians with Bob Feller pitching are 7 to 20 favorites to take tomorrow's world series game. Betting Commissioner James J. Carroll posted 11 to 5 odds on the Boston Braves with either Warren Spahn or Nelson Potter on the mound.

That means that a better risks $20 to win $7 on the Indians, but needs only $5 to win $11 on the Braves.

Cougars Slam Grizzly Crew

MISSOULA, Mont., Oct. 9 (AP)—Washington State college scored the first time it got the ball and kept on going for a 48-0 Pacific Coast conference football victory over the Montana Grizzlies today.

The weather was perfect and so was the Washington State play, equally effective over land or through the air.

Washington State rolled up 23 first downs to six for Montana. The Cougars gained 254 yards by rushing to 73 for Montana and completed 15 passes for 199 yards while the Grizzlies made 72 yards on five.

The Cougars drove 88 yards when they got the ball in the first quarter, Marvin Cross scoring from the two.
