

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Art Patrons Will Hear Littman

Frederick Littman of Portland, nationally known sculptor and hear of the sculpture department of the Portland museum art school, will be the speaker on opening night of the Salem Art association's first art show on October 25.

The show of northwest artists' work will be placed in Elfstrom's galleries, and will open with the night showing, lecture, and tea.

Littman, well known as a lecturer, has had several commissions throughout the United States and in Europe. He is best known in Salem for his sculpture on the First National Bank building.

Luncheons Are Slated

Entertaining centers around several informal luncheon parties this week.

Mrs. Edwin Keech has invited eight of her friends to luncheon this afternoon at her Morningside home. The afternoon will be spent informally and autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Mrs. P. H. Schnell will preside at a one o'clock luncheon on Friday afternoon at her East Hoyt street home. Bridge will be in play following the luncheon hour. The individual tables will be centered with bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums.

Covers will be placed for Mrs. David Eason, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. R. H. Baldock, Mrs. Silas Gaiser, Mrs. Lloyd Riches, Mrs. Russel E. Pratt, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. E. J. Scellars, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. A. A. Rogers and her sister, Mrs. Sadie May Scattaboe of Seattle, who is visiting at the Rogers' home.

Mrs. Upjohn New President

New officers and committee chairmen were installed and appointed at the monthly meeting of the Salem Memorial hospital auxiliary Monday afternoon. Mrs. Richard Upjohn is the new president and secretary with her sister, Mrs. P. W. Geiser, vice president; Mrs. W. Jerry Stout, secretary; and Mrs. Mal Rudd, treasurer. Committee chairmen include Mrs. James Haworth, publicity; Mrs. Homer Smith, jr., program; Mrs. Harold O. Schneider, membership; Mrs. Chris Seeley, telephone; Mrs. Irwin Wedel, hospital committee; and Mrs. W. E. Scamster, auxiliary room at the hospital.

Irwin Wedel, superintendent at the hospital, spoke to the group on the newly remodeled surgery and told about the auxiliary's project for the year, the furnishing and equipping of the formula room for the new nursery. The membership drive will begin this month under the direction of Mrs. Harold Schneider and a bazaar will be held in December.

Public Relations Dinner Thursday

Toastmistress club will be hostess to representatives of the city, and of various civic groups at a public relations dinner at Nohlren's at 6 o'clock Thursday night. Mayor and Mrs. R. L. Elfstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Cochran will be among those attending.

Mrs. Emerson Teague, president of the club, will greet the guests. Miss Amanda Anderson will be toastmistress and speakers will be Miss Ruth James, Miss Lorraine Muesey and Mrs. Grace Hartley. Mrs. Mae Wilder will be in charge of the table topics.

CLUB CALENDAR

TUESDAY
Junior Guild, St. Paul's Episcopal church, parish house, 1 p.m.
Gamma Phi Beta alumnae, buffet dinner, with Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Wallace Road, 6:30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY
Jason Lee, WSCS, 11 a.m., luncheon at 12:30 p.m., April-October circle houses.

THURSDAY
Dine and Do club, no-host dinner at home with Mrs. Ed Owen, Evans ave.

FRIDAY
Barbara Fritche tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, Woman's clubhouse 8 p.m.

SATURDAY
Salem Branch, AAUW, luncheon meeting, Marion hotel, 1 p.m.

COMMERCIAL ART
BOB BROWNE
SALEM ENGRAVING
215 S. COMMERCIAL ST.
New Home Number 2-2441

Mrs. Anna Morgan, president of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, who will preside at the club's annual public relations banquet tonight at the Legion club in observance of National Business Women's week. Guest speaker for the 6:45 o'clock banquet will be Dr. O. R. Chambers, professor of psychology at Oregon State college, who is well known for his research in mental hygiene. Mrs. Morgan was honor guest at the president's breakfast on Sunday morning. (Kennell-Ellis.)

Hard Times Dance For Cosmis Club

The Cosmis Dance club will entertain with a hard times dance Saturday night at the Mayflower hall, Sonny St. Clair and her orchestra will play between 8:30 and 12 o'clock.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Richard King, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dummer and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Kennon.

Mrs. Karl Becke and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard were hostesses to members of the former's bridge club at supper Tuesday night at the Shepard home on North Summer street.

HOGG BROS. Cooking School HAS NEW LOOK

Mrs. Jane Coie Home Economist

Howard Coe Dept. Head

The Home Advisory Department of Hogg Bros. with Mrs. Jane Coie, Home Economist, officiating, sincerely desires to be of the utmost help to every housewife in the care and use of all major electrical appliances. With this thought in mind, Hogg Bros. are again conducting their weekly cooking school, held on the mezzanine floor of their new appliance store at 115 S. Commercial this Thursday, October 14th at 2:30 p.m.

For this Thursday's school, the featured high light will be the Broiler of the Frigidaire Range and its many uses.

For a light afternoon snack Mrs. Coie has planned a Hot Banana Bread to be served with coffee. Also as a special attraction we wish to present a beautiful table lamp of Deanna China.

Every housewife is cordially invited to attend our classes. Bring your cooking problems with you and discuss them with Mrs. Coie. Let our Home Advisory Department help you find the new and more satisfying results from your electrical appliances.

HOGG BROS.
WILLAMETTE VALLEY'S LEADING APPLIANCE & HOME FURNISHERS
SALEM OREGON CITY

Salem Couples Will Attend Grid Classic in Portland Saturday, Parties Follow

There will be dozens of Salem people in Portland on Saturday for the second large game of the season at Multnomah stadium, the Oregon-USC classic. Many will remain for the week end, with several large post-game parties arranged by Portland hosts for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer McDonald, who formerly lived in Salem, have invited a large group of their friends from here as well as from Portland and Eugene to a buffet supper party at their home following the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorne H. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Harvey, jr., also former Salem residents, will be hosts for a post-game dinner party at the former's home for the pleasure of a group of their friends, who will be in Portland for the game. Bidden are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Siegmund of Astoria, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schreiber of Forest Grove, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dushney of McMinnville, all formerly of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler R. English, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. George Scales, Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Stadler, jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Busick of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heltzel will be in Portland for the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warren, and will be among those attending the Oregon-USC game. Another group of rooters will include Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Waterman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roth, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet and Miss Margaret Wagner. They will be joined in Portland by Glenn Potts of Seattle, brother of Kenneth Potts.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Loucks, Mrs. A. Schreiber and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Remington will attend the grid classic. Other rooters will be Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quistad and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cannon. Still others having tickets for the game are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maisson, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wayne Loder, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huggins, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Simonson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Campbell and Mrs. John Beakey.

Will Travel East, South

Planning a month's trip east and south are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, who leave Friday for Detroit, Mich., going by way of the Canadian Rockies, making stops at Winnipeg and Toronto. They will visit in New York City and return home through the southern states, New Orleans and California.

Mrs. Merrill Ohling will be hostess for an informal au revoir party this afternoon at her South High street home for Mrs. Bonesteel. A few of the traveler's friends have been invited to a dessert luncheon.

To Join Her Husband

Mrs. Lynn F. Cronemiller, jr. (Peggy Thompson) and daughter, Nancy Jean, and her mother, Mrs. Nora Thompson, will leave Thursday by car for Denver, Colorado to join Lt. Cronemiller, who recently reenlisted in the army air corps. He is now taking a refresher course at Lowery Field. The Cronemillers have been living in Corning, Calif. the past two years. Mrs. Thompson will return to Salem later in the month by plane.

Sitting in the Oregon rooting section will be Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mr. and Mrs. James Walton, Mr. and Mrs. John Heltzel, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drager, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Vandeneysde, and Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer.

Mrs. Madsen Has 86th Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Madsen entertained at dinner at their South Church street home Sunday in compliment to his mother, Mrs. M. J. Madsen, who observed her 86th birthday anniversary. Covers were placed for Mrs. Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Larsen, Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen, Loretta and Roger Madsen of Hillsboro, Colleen Madsen of Corvallis, and the hosts and their daughter, Kay.

Monday friends called on Mrs. Madsen at her Silverton home during the afternoon. Assisting at the coffee hour were Mrs. Victor Madsen of Hillsboro, and Mrs. Edwin Hattberg. Others present were Mrs. Ole Sater, Mrs. O. S. Hauge, Mrs. I. Ormbeck, Rev. and Mrs. M. J. K. Fuhr, Mrs. Emma Randall of Alhambra, Calif., Alice Jensen, Althea Meyer and Mrs. Harold Larsen.

VFW Auxiliary Has New Member

Mrs. Mae Asken became a new member of Marion auxiliary 661, Veterans of Foreign Wars, by transfer from Las Vegas, Ariz. at a meeting of the group on Monday night. Mrs. Charles Hunt was installed guard by Mrs. Leon Hansen, past district president.

Committee reports were given by Mrs. Virgil Bolton, Mrs. Mel Clemens, Mrs. Walter Beck, Mrs. Roy Simpson and Mrs. Leon Hansen. A district meeting to be held in Silverton October 20 and a benefit pinocle party on October 14 at 8 o'clock at VFW hall were announced.

Another Metropolitan

THE STORES OF BETTER VALUES

NYLON HOSIERY SALE

SPECIAL PURCHASE

brings you Leg Allure at Luring Prices

Full Fashion Dupont Nylons

Sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2 87¢

Would Sell For $1.29, If Perfect

- 45-GUAGE—30 DENIER
- BROWN TOAST
- GLACE MOCHA
- MORNING MIST
- SUN SHADOW

$1.07

Sizes 8 1/2 to 11

Would Sell For $1.69, If Perfect

- 51-GUAGE—30 DENIER
- SMOKE CLOUD
- BROWN TOAST
- AUTUMN DUSK
- BROWN MIST
- GLACE MOCHA
- MORNING MIST

COMPARE, THEN HURRY . . . BARGAINS LIKE THESE CAN'T LAST!

Metropolitan
THE STORES OF BETTER VALUES

156 North Commercial

Salem, Oregon

Jaunting About Johnson's

On Anybody's Platform

You'll win the popular vote in a Modish coat. Smart houndstooth check in a straight sports-back style. You'll look like a million for only $45.00.

Soft as Baby Wool

Johnson's new shipment of gay bandanas have arrived. Scrumptious colors in all wool. Plaids or plain, and for $1.69.

Cardigans Are Colossal

And now Johnson's have those long-sleeve navy blue sweaters you've been waiting for. $4.95. Also short-sleeved cable knit cardigans in aqua, pink and jade. $7.95.

Fluffy Puffy

are those soft angora anklets at Johnson's. Every color in the rainbow and more. Those hard-to-get purple, black and white anklets are now in stock in all sizes.

Sweet 'n' Innocent

In lace and tucks, Judy Bond blouses go all out in femininity this fall. Made in graceful crepes with short, three-quarter or long sleeves. $5.95.

Johnson's
THE STORES OF BETTER VALUES
Salem, Oregon

464 State Street
Salem, Oregon