

Patricia Leavy Is Married

HUBBARD—Miss Patricia Leavy, daughter of Mrs. Leavy, Aurora, and Frederick Wilmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilmes, Aurora, were united in marriage at a nuptial mass at St. Luke's church, Woodburn, Saturday, October 23, 9 a.m. by Father V. L. Moffenbier in a double ceremony. Mrs. E. S. Donnelly played the organ and Bernard Smith sang during the mass.

Edward Leavy, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a white brocade bridal gown with short puff sleeves, round neckline, full skirt with bustle effect in back, long mitts and a long tulle veil. At her throat she wore a watch on a double chain that had been worn by her mother at her wedding. She carried an orchid on a white prayer book.

Honor attendant was a niece of the bride, Miss Theora Brosseau of Portland. She wore a yellow nylon gown trimmed in blue, mitts to match and carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums and pink rose buds. Another niece, Miss Eva Brosseau of Portland, was bridesmaid and wore a dress identical to that of the maid of honor in pink nylon trimmed in blue with mitts to match and carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums and pink rose buds.

Walter Wilmes, brother of the groom, was best man and Wilfred Wilmes, twin of Walter, Ralph Wilmes and Leo Brosseau, Portland were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a brown length dress and wore a corsage of gardenias and rose-buds. The groom's mother wore a dark blue street length dress and a corsage of gardenias and rose-buds.

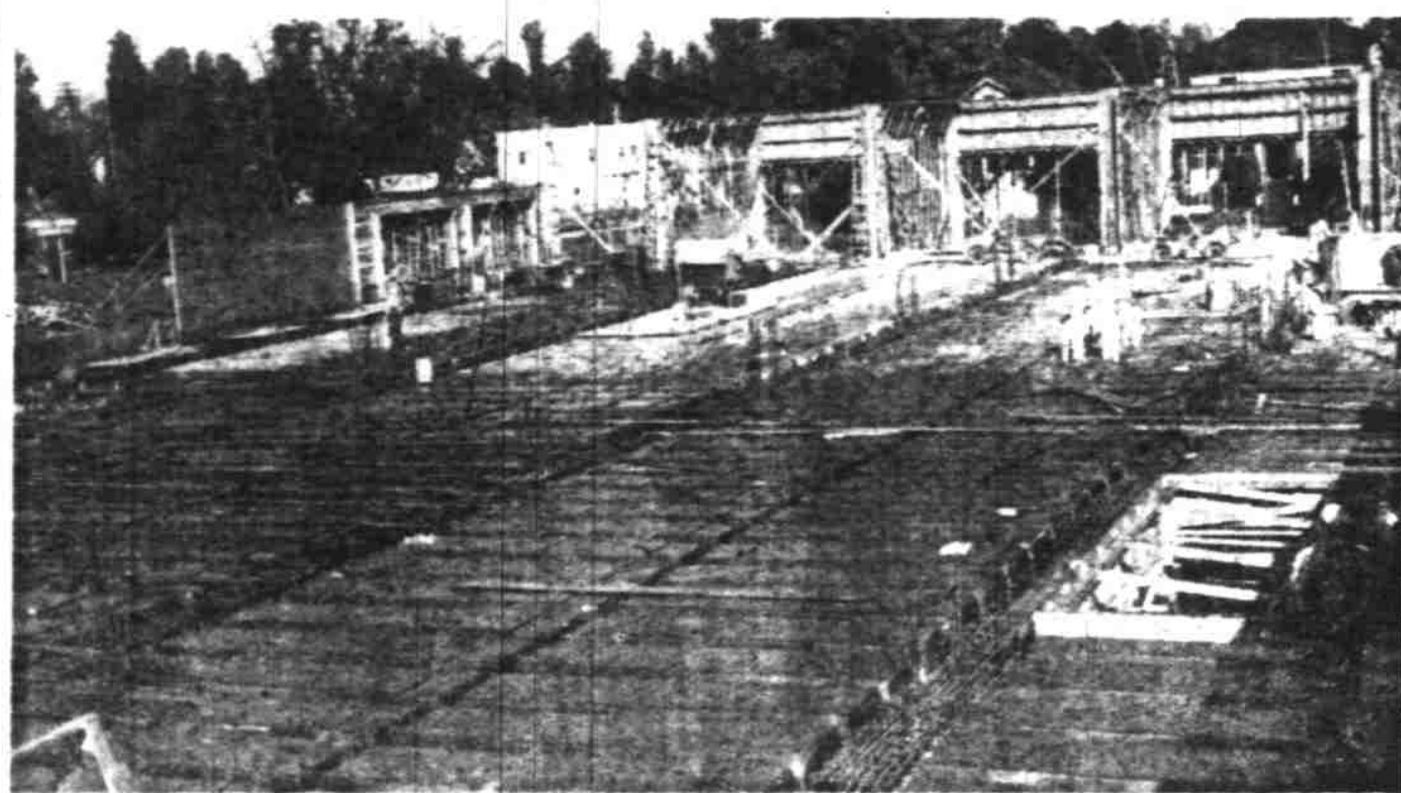

A wedding dinner was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilmes. The bride's cake was cut by the bride's sister, Mrs. Brosseau of Portland. Miss Nada Clark of Woodburn served, and was assisted by Mrs. Minnie Behm, Mrs. Peter Klenski, and Mrs. George Grimps.

The bride wore a snake gray taffeta dress and matching coat with gray accessories and an orchid for traveling. The couple will honeymoon in California.

Miss Barbara Sundet and Miss Suzanne Huggins will be in Klamath Falls this coming weekend to attend the wedding of their Pi Beta Phi sorority sister, Miss Sally Mueller, and Robert Kent on Sunday at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Miss Sundet will be a bridesmaid and Miss Huggins will assist at the reception.

Mrs. James T. Brand will be in Portland today to speak to a branch of the Portland AAUW

Forms Placed for Floor of New Sears Store

These forms for the ground level floor of the new Sears, Roebuck store are in place and reinforcing steel work is being laid preparatory to pouring a 14-inch thick concrete slab. Outline of the 125 by 200 foot store, between Marion and Union streets is taking shape as forms for the walls go up this week. Meanwhile the forms of Berg's market are being taken down exposing the recently poured concrete building at Center and North 12th streets. (Photo by Don Dill, Statesman staff photographer.)

FOOTPRINTS & JIM

I DON'T GUESS there's anything more outstanding than a pair of squeaky shoes unless it's a pair of our fine new ten dollar Cordovans. The difference is obvious, I hope. But just in case you like the shoes you have and don't want to invest in a new pair right now let me assure you of this: down at our place we'll fix your shoes so you won't hear a squeak out of them . . . and we're glad to do it. Because we make our living not just by selling shoes but by making shoes and by repairing shoes. So, if you are budgeting close this month . . . we'll make it possible that you won't just squeak through!

Friends For McKinney

Dear Registered Voter:
You are being asked on November 2, 1948, to vote for a candidate for Salem Municipal Judge. Your present incumbent, W. W. McKinney, is asking for re-election on his record, and we feel that you should be advised of the work of the man who has served you faithfully during the past two years.

W. W. McKinney was appointed Salem Municipal Judge by the City Council on January 1, 1947. At the time of his appointment Salem had never had a municipal judge, and it became his first duty to set up the routine work necessary to establish a working court organization. This was done under most adverse conditions, as the city had provided no place for such office to be conducted. In spite of the poor working conditions and lack of any adequate court room, Judge McKinney provided the new records needed, and conducted the daily court work. During 1947, 4,575 cases were processed through the Salem Municipal Court, and in 1948 to date, 3,533 cases have been heard and decided. In nearly two years time only two decisions have been appealed to the higher court, one of which has been affirmed, and the other remains to be heard.

We say that this record of accomplishment by a man working only through the salary provided for part time is worthy of your earnest consideration, and that Salem needs to retain the incumbent Salem Municipal Judge.

We therefore ask you to vote for W. W. McKinney.
