

53 Attend First Rehearsal of Salem Community Orchestra

Salem's new community orchestra is off to a good start with 53 players. Conductor Frank Fisher reported Thursday.

The big attendance at the first rehearsal Wednesday night was encouraging to the director, who pointed out that the musicians include many adult townspeople, long interested in music, as well as school and university players. Fisher is on the staff at Willamette university music school.

Openings for more musicians exist, Fisher said. Next rehearsal will be conducted at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, November 4, at the university rehearsal hall next to Sweetland field. Regular rehearsals, decided by the group Wednesday, will be held on the first and third Thursdays and the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

Those who joined the orchestra Wednesday are:

- Violin—Dalbert Jepson, Art Jensen, Mrs. Charles Sawyer, Betty Kuhlman, Frank Holman, P. H. Blankenship, Frances Linton, Mrs. Rawlins, Caroline Matter, Jerry Brown, Dolores Jorgensen, Elinor Sikorra, Bonnie Litzenberg, Marian Gustavson.
- Viola—Doris McCain, Lillian Bohrenkamp, Vert Holden.
- Cello—Bernard Sokolow, Emil Bann-

Landslide Vote Predicted by County Clerk

A landslide vote in Marion county on Tuesday's election is predicted by Marion County Clerk Harlan Judd who bases his estimates on the record numbers of sample ballots being taken by voters.

Over 4,000 sample lists had been given out at his office by Thursday night. Judd has ordered 3,000 more and predicts they will go in a last-minute rush Monday. Those given out over the counter in the clerk's office are in addition to the 20,000 sample ballots sent out in ballot boxes to each precinct and delivered to towns over the county.

Only 900 sample ballots were given out during the May primary elections from the clerk's office, Judd said.

Judd indicated that possibly 70 per cent of the 41,558 registered voters will actually cast their ballots on election day. Usually only about 60 per cent of the registered voters reach the polls, he said.

'Tune Detective' Proves 'Music Is Fun', at Knife, Fork Dinner

Take it from a man who "takes music seriously but not hard," music is fun and anyone can make a little of it for himself.

That was the theme of Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, the "tune detective," who lectured lightly with his own handy accompaniment on a piano before the Salem Knife and Fork club Thursday night. More than 300 attended the dinner meeting in the Marion hotel.

Spaeth did some tune detecting, showed how to play a piano in five minutes, recognized the impact of radio, movies and records on music appreciation and maintained that "the classics" are far less forbidding if considered, more simply, as "permanent music."

Jazzing the classics, said Dr. Spaeth, is not the heinous crime some highbrows would indicate, for through such versions of "permanent music" the casual music listener may find greater enjoyment and, eventually, the real thing in music.

Anyone can have fun at the piano, according to the music lecturer, starting with a simple chord which provides the accompaniment for an easily-hummed tune. This he considers a better start than picking out a tune itself with one finger. In any event, said Spaeth, if the newcomer finds he likes it (just like a duffer at golf) he might want to take lessons to further his interest.

New Yorkers Give Ovation To Truman

NEW YORK, Oct. 28-(AP)—President Truman pounded his campaign through crowd-lined streets today, punched at Gov. Thomas E. Dewey by name, and proclaimed in Madison Square Garden tonight that "liberal government" will win November 2.

Here in America's biggest city he achieved one of the great, supreme moments that comes to a candidate for the presidency—a ride before a police-estimated 1,800,000 or more roaring people. Strung along nine miles of streets and clustered in towering buildings, they poured out a tremendous ovation and a snow-storm of scrap paper.

And then in the garden, where candidates make climax speeches of their campaigns, the chief executive declared people are arising "to preserve their liberties," to champion liberal government and the principles of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

He derided Dewey as "my shadow," following sound from place to place—but not into the White House—and saying "Me, too."

Truck, Car Hit On 12th Street

Mrs. M. S. Smith, Roseburg, was released from the Salem Memorial hospital late Thursday night after examination following an accident atop 12th street hill at Strong street.

Mrs. Smith suffered bruises when a panel delivery truck driven by her husband spun on wet pavement and collided with a convertible. None of the occupants of the second car was injured.

Shipowners, Union Agree

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28-(AP)—A new contract between employers and one of five unions involved in the long west coast maritime strike appeared near tonight.

Conclusion of such a contract, however, would not necessarily presage and early end to the strike, now 57 days old. Federal Conciliator Omar Hoskins said:

"The Pacific American Shipowners association and the Marine Engineer's Beneficial association have reached a basis of settlement, subject to ratification of their respective membership."

Terms of the proposed settlement remain confidential pending union action.

VFW Plans Stag Party

A stag party is scheduled by the Marion post 661, VFW, for the VFW hall tonight at 8 p.m.

Members only will be admitted, but new memberships and reinstatements will be accepted at the door, it was announced.

Butter Price Drops

PORTLAND, Oct. 28-(AP)—The retail price of butter dropped to the lowest level in 18 months here today. Chain stores cut the price two cents a pound to 67 cents for grade A, in anticipation of a wholesale decline.

Lions Back City Manager

Salem Lions club members voted preponderantly in favor of city manager government for Salem and of a four-lane bypass truck route east of the city, in a membership poll taken at Thursday's luncheon meeting in Marion hotel.

The vote: In favor of retaining city manager government, 98; opposed, 8. Favoring immediate construction of a bypass north-south highway, 90; against, 17.

The club saw a movie of the freshman Oregon-Oregon State football game, presented by Al Cox, OSC freshman coach.

Gridders Given Food Parcels

Michigan State gridders may or may not go back east with victory under their belts, but at least they won't go back hungry.

The football players who are staying in Salem prior to their Saturday game at Oregon State college in Corvallis received food packages from Salem Chamber of Commerce on their arrival Thursday.

Each player found in his hotel room a box, tied in Michigan State green and white colors, filled with apples, pears, walnuts and filberts. Chamber officials who prepared the boxes said the produce had been donated by Northwest Nut Growers. Pat McLaughlin of Woodburn, Willis L. Phillips, Earl T. Newbery and H. W. and Jack Bowden.

Dewey Backs Added Social Security Benefits

BOSTON, Oct. 28-(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey pledged tonight to increase social security benefits and extend them to "many millions of workers" now unprotected if he is elected president.

At the same time he called for a higher minimum wage and a "stronger and expanded public health service," though he did not enlarge upon that statement.

Precedents Found To Permit Use of 'Gordon' Ballots

Douglas county may use the county's general election ballots even though U. S. Sen. Guy Cordon's name is misspelled on them, David O'Hara, state elections division chief, said Thursday.

Through a printing error Cordon's name was spelled "Gordon." O'Hara said the people of Douglas county, Cordon's home county, would know who they were voting for when they marked in "Gordon."

He said he discovered several precedents to his ruling. He added that election judges always have instructions to register a
