Don't Look Now...

but... when we see a show of modern art, such as is hanging this week at the Elstreem galleries, we wonder about our adequacy. Some of them we like very much, but others make us take off our glasses and polish them, just in case we aren't seeing quite clearly. Good thing... Have you noticed how up and coming our art association has become this winter? Crafts classes, sketching trips, art exhibits and other activities planned for the year. Good thing is that everyone who wants to participate may, and most are not money making affairs. Duck season... These are the days when farmers and their livestock, must perpetually bob their heads down to avoid being taken for pheasants by wild eyed "sportsmen" determined to get a bird or else. Maxine Buren
