

Salem Boys Admit Taking Seven Cars

Two 16-year-old Salem boys were being held in the Marion county juvenile ward Wednesday after admitting to city police they stole at least seven cars to go joy riding during the past three days. The youths were arrested by Officers Marion Mather and L. D. DeKett while driving a stolen 1941 Hudson in north Salem at 11:15 Tuesday night. The car owned by James E. Morgan, 3410 Liberty rd., was taken in downtown Salem at 9 p. m. Tuesday.

Under questioning, the boys confessed taking 1940 and 1934 Oldsmobiles earlier in the evening in the downtown district. The owners of the vehicles were identified as George C. Sparkman, Salem route 4, and A. W. Blankenship, 665 W. Madrona ave. The 1940 model, belonging to Sparkman, was recovered early this morning on Front street.

The boys also told officers they stole a 1935 Hudson, a 1947 Chevrolet and another unidentified auto last Friday night. They said they drove all the vehicles only a short time before abandoning them in Salem streets.

Chair Burns In Salem Home

City firemen Tuesday night were called to the home of C. C. Ackerman, 142 E. Wilson st., where fire destroyed an overstuffed chair and burned a section of floor.

The blaze broke out about 8:30 p. m. when Mr. and Mrs. Ackerman were sleeping in a downstairs bedroom. They were driven from the house by the smoke, but were unhurt.

Murder Suspect Refuses to Eat, Fed Through Veins

SEATTLE, Nov. 3-(AP)—A Seattle youth, charged with murder, was being fed through the veins in King county hospital today after refusing food in jail since Saturday.

The youth, 20-year-old John Russell Gasser, has pleaded insanity by reason of temporary insanity to the mutilation slaying of Donna Woodcock, 22-year-old carhop, on July 10.

Jail turnkey Lloyd Bunker said Gasser not only refused to eat, beginning Saturday, but also refused to leave his bunk and go into the jail day room.

He resisted efforts to get him out of his bunk yesterday, Bunker said, hanging onto the metal frame.

Today, he was removed forcibly, Bunker reported, and sent to the hospital under guard.

Invalid Carried To Polling Place

PORTLAND, Nov. 3-(AP)—An eighty-two-year-old invalid living alone was puzzled about how she could get to the polls Tuesday—until she decided it was an emergency situation.

Mrs. Dora Lacey called police headquarters. A few minutes later a traffic officer drove up, carried the bedridden woman to his car and drove her to the polling booth.

RUSSIA SHORT OF QUOTA
TOKYO, Nov. 3-(AP)—General MacArthur's headquarters announced today that Russia will repatriate only 14,000 Japanese from Siberia and the island of Sakhalin this month—36,000 short of the quota.
