Together 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Evan O. Allen celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a reception at the Salem Woman's clubhouse on Sunday, October 31. The couple's marriage took place at Lostine, Oregon on November 2, 1898. Mr. Allen, the eldest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allen, was born in Kansas in 1874 and crossed the plains in a covered wagon with his parents at the age of five. Mrs. Allen, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Bostman, is a native Oregonian, having been born in the Willamette valley in 1878.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Allen were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Laverty, and granddaughter, Miss Sharon Laverty. A son, Darrell S. Allen of New York, who is with the maritime service and now at sea, was unable to be present.

Pouring during the afternoon were Mrs. W. C. Boatman of Portland, Mrs. W. H. Spence, sr., Miss Ella L. Allen of Portland, Mrs. Alta M. Dobyns, Seattle, and Mrs. Otis Bailey of Enterprise, all relatives of the couple. Mrs. Richard VanPelt cut the wedding cake. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. John O'Conner, North Bend, Mrs. Stewart Kretschmer, Elgin, Miss Carol Spence, Portland, Miss Mary Louise Allen, Corvallis, Miss Nadine Allen, Umapine, Miss LaVera Eads, Enterprise, all nieces of the couple.

Mr. Earl T. Andersen and John A. Olson of Salem.

Over a hundred relatives and friends from Salem, Portland and other Oregon cities called and Mrs. Eads of Enterprise, who attended the wedding of the couple fifty years ago, came with his wife for the celebration.

A musical program was presented by Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt, jr. in charge. Eloise Van Cleave, John Schmidt, jr. and Betty Pugh Hagen sang. June Rowland gave piano accordion solos, Mrs. Harold Lyman gave a reading and Beverly Lyman played piano numbers. Mrs. John Schmidt, jr. was the accompanist. The Rev. Harold Lyman gave the "Theme of the Golden Wedding."

Station Wagons to Escort Guests

Station wagons will taxi guests to the West Lefelle street home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wood this afternoon for the Salem General hospital auxiliary benefit tea, according to announcement made by the president, Mrs. David B. Hill at the meeting of the auxiliary Tuesday morning. Guests are asked to leave their cars at the foot of the hill and not park in front of the Wood home. Station wagons will be waiting on Lefelle street to take guests to the tea and young men have been asked to drive them to avoid congestion on the street.

Calling hours are from 3 to 6 o'clock and several hundred are expected to attend this annual event. Tickets will be available at the door for the tea.

Guests Are Bidden to Parties

Luncheons and dinner parties highlight the social agenda during the week.

Mrs. Horace D. McGee and Mrs. Jerry Wing will be hostesses for a one o'clock luncheon Friday afternoon at the McGee home on Norway street for a group of their friends.

Covers will be placed for sixteen and arrangements of autumn flowers and leaves will provide the decorative note. Bridge will be in play during the afternoon.

Kruegers Hosts
Mr. and Mrs. Arnold A. Krueger were hosts for a dinner party Sunday night at their Kingwood Heights home for a few of their friends. The table was centered with an arrangement of fall fruits flanked by orange tapers. Autumn flowers were used about the rooms, where cards were in play following the dinner hour.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Riches, Mr. and Mrs. William Braun, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stevens and the Kruegers.

Miss Welch A Bride

Miss Mary Elizabeth Welch and Albert O. Arpke were married at a fall ceremony on Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church at 3 o'clock with the Rev. Dudley Strain officiating. John Schmidt, jr., sang and Mrs. Schmidt was the organist. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Welch and her husband is the son of Mrs. O. L. Arpke.

For her wedding the bride chose a winter white crepe afternoon gown enhanced with beadwork in crystal, blue and pink. She wore a rose point lace hat and carried a fan shaped bouquet of pink roses and white chrysanthemums centered with an orchid.

Mrs. David W. Porter was her sister's honor attendant and wore an eggshell crepe gown with aqua and crystal bead trim. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and white pom pom chrysanthemums. James E. Morgan was best man and usher were Eugene W. Crothers and J. Fred Remington. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Welch wore a wine afternoon gown and Mrs. Arpke attended her son's marriage in a black suit. Their corsages were gardenias and roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Wilbur M. Bush of Portland, sister of the groom, cut the cake. Mrs. Chester G. Parke, sister of the bride, poured and Mrs. Floyd N. Lancaster of Aloha, also a sister of the groom, presided at the punch bowl. Assisting were Mrs. Cecil W. Head, Mrs. Eugene Crothers, Mrs. Howard Blankley, Miss Leila M. Park, Miss Mary Evelyn Park and Miss Yvonne Roseneau. The newlyweds went south to San Francisco on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a red suit with grey accessories and an orchid. They will be at home in Salem at 940 Tamarack after November 15.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Straw were hosts on Sunday to Mrs. Liza Walker of Carmeron, Mrs. Ida Gewin, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Zimmerman, Connie and Donnie Frazier, Lennie Zimmerman, Mrs. Ronald Bowe, Mrs. Carol Bowe, Homer Bell and John Rogers, all of Portland.

To Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Yung go congratulations on the birth of a seven pound, two ounce daughter, Janet Marie, on November 1 at the Salem General hospital. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Yung, and his great-grandfather is George Dickinson.

Garden Club Show Slated

Monday, December 6 is the date for the Salem Garden club's Christmas show, according to announcement made Monday afternoon at the club's meeting by Mrs. J. B. Van Cleave, president. The show, always an anticipated event of the pre-holiday season, will be held at the Salem Woman's club afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Van Cleave also announced her standing committees for the year as follows: program and year book, Miss Edith Schryver, Mrs. Lester Barr and Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans; membership, Mrs. Ben Maxwell, Mrs. Earl Andersen and Mrs. R. D. Cooper; publicity, Mrs. Morrell Clary; flower show, Mrs. C. A. Cole, Mrs. Homer McWain and Mrs. Walter Smith; horticulture, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Mrs. L. H. McMahan and Mrs. Lewis Judson; hospitality, Mrs. J. W. Carr, Mrs. R. B. Winslow and Mrs. J. F. Sumpter.

At the Monday meeting Mrs. Phillip Brandt gave an interesting talk on "A Little Money, and a Light Hand," discussing landscaping for small homes.

Au Revoirs To Couple

Au revois will be said this week to Mr. and Mrs. Warren James and daughters, Diane and Teri Lou, who will leave next Tuesday for Okonagan, Wash. to make their home. Mr. James has been appointed Boy Scout executive for that area with headquarters in Okonagan.

Mr. James, who graduated in June from Willamette university, will return to Salem Sunday from Newark, New Jersey, where he has been the past six weeks attending the Schiff Memorial Boy Scout training school. Mrs. James and daughters are in Gervais this week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald DuRette. Mr. James' mother, Mrs. Frank James, is house mother at the Phi Delta Theta fraternity at Willamette university.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bonesteel are leaving today for Helena and White Sulphur Springs, Montana to visit with relatives for a fortnight.

American War Mothers will meet tonight at VFW hall at 9 o'clock.
