Mrs. Carrie H. Beechler, who was honored on her 80th birthday at an open house October 31 when her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Garlen L. Simpson, and Miss Grace Babcock entertained at the Simpson home. Mrs. Beechler has lived in Salem since she was a few months old and is an active member of the American War Mothers and Congregational church. (Kennell-Ellis).

Dinner for Visitors

Visitors in the capital are Commander and Mrs. Madison Nichols, who are guests at the home of his father, J. N. Nichols, for a fortnight. Commander and Mrs. Nichols have been in the Philippines the past two years and are enroute to his new assignment at the Great Lakes naval base. The travelers came by way of China, Japan and Hawaii.

Highland Mothers Hear Speakers

Highland Mothers Thursday heard Harry B. Johnson, curriculum director of the Salem public schools and George D. Porter, director special adult education, speak at the meeting held in the school. New microphones, purchased by the mothers club, were used for the first time.

Miss Means Married Friday

At a candlelight ceremony Friday night at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist church Miss Ruth Mildred Means, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Means, became the bride of Marvin Eugene Moos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moos of Sprague, Wash. The Rev. Lloyd Anderson officiated before a setting of white chrysanthemums and tapers. Candles with ivy and pom pom chrysanthemums decorated the windows.

Paul Emerick of Portland, the bride's cousin sang "Through the Years," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Lloyd Anderson was the organist. Two choir boys, Stanton Dean Anderson and Jimmie Seitz, lighted the candles.

Of white satin was the bridal gown, fashioned with a net yoke and stole collar, long sleeves and full skirt with a bustle. Her fingertip veil cascaded from a halo of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white spider chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Howard Means of Salt Lake City was honor attendant for her sister-in-law and wore a white organza gown, brocaded with orchid velvet flowers. She carried purple and lilac spider chrysanthemums. Bridal maids were Miss Lorraine Grindel of Hillsboro, who wore turquoise taffeta and carried yellow chrysanthemums, and Miss Margaret Forsythe, who carried bronze chrysanthemums to complement her yellow taffeta gown.

Carolyn Means, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Means, and Earlene Boardman, daughter of the Earl Boardman of Salt Lake City and a niece of Mrs. Means, were flower girls. They wore yellow and turquoise floor length frocks.

Loren Moos was best man and groomsmen were Harold Moos and Jack Brown. Ushers were John Goffrier, Robert George, Gene Collett and Howard Means.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Means chose a sapphire blue satin gown and Mrs. Moos attended her son's marriage in a royal blue crepe dress. Their corsages were of white chrysanthemums tied with silver ribbon.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Pouring were Mrs. Paul Emerick of Portland and Mrs. Roy Reynolds. Assisting were Misses Ellen Reynolds, Lois Martin, Marjorie Coe, Janice Mayskens, Mrs. Keith Wynne and Mrs. Lloyd Smith. The bride's table was covered with a hand embroidered cutwork cloth, which was brought from India by Mrs. Means' sister.

The newlyweds will live at Sprague, Wash., following their honeymoon.

Au Revoir Party For C. A. Drakes

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Drake were honored at a farewell party at their home on North 5th street on Thursday night by a group of friends and neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Drake are moving to Corvallis where he is in business.

At the meeting of the American Gold Star Mothers Thursday night plans were made for the installation of officers of the first state department to be held in Salem on November 20. Oregon's department will be the first one to be installed in the west.

Miscellany

Sour Cream Pie, Apple Pie, Loaf Among Recipes Recommended Now

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Miscellany of weekend ideas. With cranberries at their best, and apples good, might try this:

CRANBERRY (FRESH)

APPLE PIE

- 4 tart apples
- 1 1/2 cups cranberries
- Pastry
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons fat

pare, core, and thinly slice the apples. Wash and cut cranberries in halves. Line a 9-inch pie plate with pastry. Place a layer of apples in the bottom of the pie plate; add cranberries; add remaining apples. Sprinkle with a mixture of the sugar, cinnamon and salt. Dot with table fat. Cover with pastry which has openings cut in center to let steam escape. Seal edges. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) about 45 min. or until apples are tender and the crust is golden brown.

Another strictly winter favorite is this rich but not too expensive:

SOUR CREAM RAISIN PIE

- 1 egg, or 2 yolks
- 1 cup sour cream or buttermilk
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 2 T. flour
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon or allspice
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 cups raisins

Beat egg slightly; add cream or buttermilk and vinegar. Stir in sugar mixed with flour, spices and salt. Add raisins. Pour into pastry-lined pan. Cover with top crust or leave uncovered. Bake at 350 degrees F. 10 minutes, then at 350 degrees F. 30 minutes longer, or until crust is browned.

HAM LOAF

- 2 pounds ground ham
- 1 cup cracker crumbs
- 1/4 cup milk
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1/4 cup vinegar
- 1/2 cup water

Mix ham, cracker crumbs, milk and eggs together and put in loaf pan. Boil remaining ingredients to thin syrup and pour over loaf. Bake at 300 degrees.
