This week's final: Albany at Corvallis, Eugene at Salem.

The Big Six football league draws to a close this week, and fitting enough there is one important clash in not only the circuit but also in the district holding the two teams, Albany and Corvallis. The undefeated Bulldogs, only Class A team in the state with a perfect record, play the capable Spartans Thursday afternoon at Corvallis. Coach Rex Hunsaker's Albany team will be the favorite, but any Albany-Corvallis athletic mix is usually unpredictable.

Should Corvallis upset the Bulldogs it will drop Albany into a final championship tie with Bend. The Lava Bears already have completed their league schedule and will play at Klamath Falls Thursday in another traditional mix. Springfield is finished with league play also, without a win. The other league game falls on Sweetland field Friday night between Salem and Eugene, the final grid tilt of the season locally. Eugene is in a second place tie with Corvallis and will be heavily favored over Loren Mort's locals who have been able to win only one game in the Big Six this season.

Of the six teams in the circuit only Albany present has a chance to participate in the upcoming state playoffs.

Michigan Moves Over Irish To Snatch No. 1 Grid Rating

'Van', Nagel to Duel

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 9.—(Special)—It will be Ray Nagel, 842 yards, vs. Norm Van Brocklin, 839 yards, at the Los Angeles Coliseum Friday night when the Coast conference's two leading offensive stars square off in the Oregon-UCLA game.

PCC statistics show Nagel three yards ahead of the Oregon All-American nominee in the total offense column. However, the Bruin is trailing Van Brocklin by four completions in the passing column.

Penn State Climbs; Oregon Ranked 15th

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Hall the "Big Four" of college football — Michigan, Notre Dame, Army and California. In just that order, these unbeaten, untied powerhouses pushed to the front today in the weekly Associated Press poll of gridiron might. All the others are strung out behind — as if in a secondary category.

Completing the top ten in order are Penn State, North Carolina, Southern Methodist, Northwestern, Oklahoma and Clemson — all except Clemson either beaten or tied.

Michigan supplanted the South Bend Irish as the No. 1 team, retaining the temporary upper hand in their dual tug of war that carried over two seasons.

Notre Dame received the most first place votes from the nation's football writers and broadcasters submitting their first ten. They got 80 top votes to 77 for Michigan. But the Wolverines amassed the edge in points awarded on the basis of ten for first, nine for second, etc. Their total was 1,836 compared with 1,775 for Notre Dame.

Army moved to third place on the strength of its 43-0 rout of Stanford Saturday. The Cadets received 1,553 points and 14 first place votes. California, 28-13 conqueror of UCLA, collected 1,244 points — the only other team to pass the thousand mark.

Penn State leaped from 14th to fifth on its 13-0 conquest of previously unblemished Pennsylvania. Penn dropped from seventh to 17th. Oklahoma and Clemson are the other newcomers to the select circle. The Sooners, conquerors of Missouri, moved from 19th to ninth, tumbling Missouri to 20th. Clemson slipped into the tenth spot and Georgia Tech, upset by Tennessee, fell from sixth to 11th to make room. Oregon got 126 votes for 15th place.

Marion-Polk Leaguers Wait Final Grid Tilts

With Independence high's Hopsters already assured of no worse than a championship tie, the Marion-Polk football leaguers play their final round of games Thursday, Armistice Day. All three struggles are slated for daytime. Monmouth at Independence, Stayton at Jefferson, Salem Academy at Sacred Heart.

Junior High Elevens In Two Clashes Today

The Salem Junior High football league gets in an extra punch today with a pair of games on Olinger and Leslie fields. In the afternoon game at Olinger it will be Clay Eggleston's Parrish Grays against Bill Hanauska's West Salems. Tonight at 7:30 o'clock at Leslie, Bob Metzger's leading Cardinals at Sacred Heart. The Jefferson game is booked for 11 a. m., the other pair at 2 p. m.

Sacred Heart's second place Cardinals appear to have the easiest task, as they play the lowly Salem Academy Hornets. But Independence could find a tartar in the strong Monmouths and both Stayton and Jefferson appear to be evenly matched. Only Hank Ercolini's Cards have a chance to gain a final tie with John Matthis' Hopsters, but only if the Cards beat Salem Academy while Independence is losing to Monmouth.

Friday, according to the schedule. West Salem is booked up with the Leslie Blues and the Parrish Cards try their brothers, the Greys, in those games. The Cards took over the lead last week on a 7-0 win over the Blues, while the previously winless Greys up and smacked the Blues in an upset, 9-0.

The teams are to play again Friday, according to the schedule. West Salem is booked up with the Leslie Blues and the Parrish Cards try their brothers, the Greys, in those games. Jayvees Cinch Tie for Title

Salem high's Jayvee footballers clinched no worse than a tie for the 1948 Big Six league title yesterday when they downed the Corvallis team, 25-0, on Olinger field. Only a game with Eugene remains next Monday and if the Leo Stenback-Bob Pederson coached Salems win that one, as expected, they will have finished their league season unbeaten.

The big Vikings were ahead 13-0 at the half yesterday as Captain Earl Eshelman and Ralph Blakely notched touchdowns. Eshelman converted the second with a line plunge. Jim Moore and Lawrence Baggett tallied the other two six-pointers in the second half. Corvallis failed to threaten seriously.

Riot Follows Jones Mat Win

Farmer Jones used his educated and punishing feet in the clutch last night at the armory to take the third and final round of Canadian Herb Parks in their red hot mat main event, but a goodly share of the evening's fireworks followed the ring climax. In trouble all the way with Referee Tony Ross as well as Jones, the cantankerous Canuck afterward became wound up in the middle of a young riot when he and Ross went at it and Ross knocked him from the ring.

The irate customers—and there were more than a few—greeted Parks' arrival from the ring with flying fists. In the wild skirmish a woman was hit and it was believed by a few of the fans that Parks had hit her. Were it not for the presence of three guardsmen, who kept the crowd collared while Parks went to the dressing rooms, chances are he would have had serious trouble. As it turned out, Parks rendered apologies to all and the crowd was dispersed. He insisted that he did not hit the woman, and that as he swung back at one of the fans who tried to slug him, the woman was knocked down by the escaping fan.

In the prelims, both of them good, the Grey Mask fouled himself out of both falls with Billy Fox and newcomer Maurice LaChapelle went to a gruelling no-fall draw with Tex Hager.

Utah Gridders Land Thursday

The Utah university football squad and accompanying party will land at McNary field at one o'clock Thursday afternoon prior to going to Corvallis where the Ute gridders Saturday clash with Oregon State.

Howard Maple, president of the Salem Breakfast club, urges club members and other townspeople to turn out and provide a warm welcome for the visitors.

A number of Utah-OSC tickets are still available at Maple's store.

Skiers Schedule Initial Outing

Santiam Ski clubbers will make their first outing of the season Sunday as they go to Mt. Hood. All interested persons are urged to register for the trip not later than Friday at Anderson's sporting goods store. Transportation will be by chartered bus.

Salem Harriers Beat Molalla

Vern Gilmore's Salem high cross-country lads chalked up their fifth straight conquest Tuesday when they topped the Molalla crew, 25 to 30 on their rival's course. Once again sparking the Salems was Jack Lofftis who finished first in the just-under-two-mile run with a time of 10:39.

In the junior division Molalla copped a 26 to 29 verdict on the strength of Bernard Devereaux's first place, Leon DuBois, Salem, was second.

Varsity results in order of finish: Jack Lofftis (S), Jim Lais (M), Les Reisch (M), Conrad Booze (S), Kent Myers (S), Dick Adams (S), George Kirk (M), George Patterson (M), Don Herring (S), Gene Kleinsmith (M).

Next action for the Vicks will be Friday's Willamette Valley Invitational meet at Jefferson.

Armistice Shoot Set

The Salem Trapshooters club has scheduled a special Armistice day shoot at the local grounds Thursday. Prizes will consist of turkeys, hams and bacon. Competition will be in classes. The public is welcome.

High in the blue a single duck appeared. Closer and closer it came to the front lines. In unison the guns of dozens of hunters threw a barrage into the sky and the lone duck seemed to dissolve. The scarred wreckage fell into the brush and not since the days of the fabulous Oklahoma land rush has there been such a scramble.

Heated arguments turned into slugfests as each hunter did his best to claim the bird. What was left of the quacker went to the victor. Back to the front lines again for the next barrage.

The facts will appear in next week's column but the above is a fair reproduction of the Summer lake duck shooting area. Anything that flies, swims or waddles seems to be fair game. Carcasses of dead swans are scattered about in such numbers that it is hard to believe they are all cases of mistaken identity. No one can mistake a Piper Cub for a B-29.

Cold weather seems to be moving the ducks and geese on south to warmer climes. Move over ducky, we'd like to join you.

Major Loop Draft Grab Today; 5,000 Eligible

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Quite a bit of baseball talent, caught in trade winds and the major league draft, is due to be tossed around tomorrow.

Representatives of the 16 major loop clubs were on hand tonight, ready to reach into the grab bag tomorrow to take their choice of more than 5,000 "bushers," eligible for picking, prices ranging from $2,000 to $10,000.

The annual draft, to be supervised by Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler, has been shifted from the boss' office to the hall of mirrors in the Netherlands Plaza hotel because of the crowd that is expected. The meeting is scheduled at 11 a. m. and if it runs true to form should be history by noon.

Back in 1926, 11 clubs drafted 20 players for $184,000, and a year ago 13 clubs drafted 29 for $272,000. Of the 29, only seven stayed in the majors, although four others were recalled after being farmed out.

The usual "last shall be first" system of selection will be used, with the eighth-placer in the recent pennant races getting first grab. The Chicago Cubs will get the opening choice, the Chicago White Sox the second, with the rotation see-sawing up through the standings until the World Champion Cleveland Indians get the final bid.

Snapp Victor Via Decision

PORTLAND, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Jack Snapp of Klamath Falls won a decision in ten disappointing rounds with Larry Carter, San Francisco, tonight.

Snapp, at 165 pounds and with a longer reach, tried too late to finish off Carter, who weighed 152. There were no knockdowns and the two clinched repeatedly to the disgust of the fans. Snapp staggered the Frisco boy in the ninth but couldn't put him down.

Joey Clemo, 127, Portland, knocked out Rolando Delgado, 127, Havana, in the fifth round of their scheduled ten-round semi-final. After two minutes of the fifth, the Portlander caught the Cuban with a left to the chin and the Havana fighter took the count.

LC's Decline Raider Invite

PORTLAND, Nov. 9.—(AP)—Lewis and Clark college announced tonight the Pioneers have declined an invitation to play Southern Oregon's Red Raiders in the Medford Pear Bowl Thanksgiving day. Coach Joe Huston said the holiday date fell just four days after a college of Idaho clash in Mount-nah stadium. He said he appreciated the invitation.

Beavers Face Tough Contest

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 9.—(Special)—For the second time in three weeks Oregon State's offense-minded football team will step outside the conference to take on a strong inter-sectional rival when the Beavers play host to the University of Utah on Bell field Saturday afternoon.

And from the Redskin's record to date it looks like the Beavers have a real job cut out for them in their ambition to gain revenge for last year's 7 to 6 upset loss to Utah at Salt Lake. After dropping their opener to Southern California, the Utes have bowled over seven straight opponents including such clubs as University of Colorado, Idaho, Arizona and Denver university.

Indeps Plan Turkey Shoot

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 9.—(Special)—The Independence Gun club will hold its annual Armistice day turkey shoot Thursday, starting at 9 a.m. A number of the prizes are available and the shoot is an open affair, according to club officers. The shoot is one of the largest of the fall season for the Independence club.
