

ON GUARD FOR PEACE

Today the United States Marine Corps commemorates its 173rd Anniversary. Still holding to the fighting traditions of the early Marines who sailed the wooden ships of the new nation during the Revolution and the War of 1812 its modernized forces can now be found in China (l) or on maneuvers at various training bases of the country (r).

CROP Drive To Organize

Final organization meeting for Marion county's portion of the Christian Rural Overseas program is to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in Mt. Angel. It is expected that volunteer solicitors will begin calling on farmers over the county early next week to collect food-stuffs for the Oregon CROP train for European relief.

The program, sponsored by churches and farm groups, provides for distribution by church organizations, chiefly Lutheran World Relief, Church World Service and Catholic Rural Life.

Farm, church and community leaders from several communities over the county are expected to-night, according to Miles G. Blickenstaff, state director. District chairmen will probably be appointed.

Aumsville Unit Plans Holiday Gifts for Vets

AUMSVILLE, Nov. 9 — Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Stallings and two children have purchased and moved into the Uren place east of town.

American Legion auxiliary of Aumsville post has made plans for working on duffel bags to meet Wednesday, November 10, at the Ivan Petersons. Mrs. Kenneth Mills, who is working for Eleanor Trindle, will give the meal planning demonstration.

Blood Donated for Mickey Phillips, Library Employee

Two local donors and three from Portland provided a special type of blood Tuesday so that Mickey Phillips, former state library employee, may undergo an operation at the state tuberculosis hospital in Portland. These will be sufficient unless the situation is changed, said Mrs. E. A. Arneson of the Marion county Red Cross chapter.

J. W. Thomas of Salem and James G. Band of Stayton went to Portland to give blood for Phillips, who has been hospitalized for 1 1/2 years. The donors were secured through the Eagles lodge and the Knights of Columbus.

Cannery Workers Plan Kiddie Shows

A series of Kiddie Shows, free movies for children, is being launched by Salem Cannery Workers union, local 670, union officials reported Tuesday.

First of the shows was held Saturday morning at the labor temple for over 100 children of union members and friends. It is planned to hold the shows an average of one per month, according to Margaret Schaeffer, program chairman.

Leathernecks To Celebrate Birthday Today

Salem's present and former leathernecks will celebrate tonight the marine corps' 173rd birthday. The banquet, pageant and dance will begin at 7:30 o'clock at Legion hall.

The gathering will be for marines, recruiting staffs, reservists, marine veterans and their wives and friends.

Principal speaker at the banquet will be Capt. Robert Jones, assistant publisher of the Capital Journal. Master of ceremonies will be Carlton Greider, retired marine. The birthday cake will be cut with a saber by Mrs. Carl Nelson, wife of Colonel Nelson, senior officer of the local reserve. Others on the program include Mayor R. L. Eifstrom and Maj. Leonard Hicks, local marine reserve commander.

Guests will include Clarence Shrock and M. C. Boniface of the recruiting committee for the Salem reserve, State Commander B. E. Owens of the American Legion, Chairman R. R. Boardman of the Salem military manpower committee.

An anniversary pageant will be presented by a group of combat veterans, in charge of Sgt. Dwain O'Hara, reservist and commander of the Salem marine corps league.

M. Sgt. Louis Painter, marine recruiter here, is in charge of arrangements.

Carter Campaign Expenses Totalled

Herbert W. Carter, unsuccessful Marion county democratic candidate for district attorney, spent $248 on his election campaign, according to a filing made in the state election bureau Tuesday.

Among other filings, Homer D. Angell, re-elected U. S. congressman from the third (Portland) district, indicated he spent $1,250.

Gas Rate Rise Would Affect Quantity Users

Salem gas rates for domestic cooking or water heating are not included in proposed new tariffs filed with the Oregon public utilities commissioner by Portland Gas & Coke Co., and most gas users would not be affected, it was explained Tuesday by J. A. H. Dodd, the company's Salem district manager. PUC hearing on the proposal is slated for November 17 in Portland.

The proposed increases apply only to space heating and other large volume consumption which presently fall in the lowest steps

Phone Firms Ask Approval Of Fund Split

Application for approval of the revenues contract between Pacific Telephone and Telegraph and American Telephone and Telegraph companies will be heard by the state public utilities commission in Portland November 15 starting at 10 a. m.

Approval of the contract is necessary before the hearing may continue on PT&T's application for a $3,000,000 annual rate increase in Oregon. The PUC's hearing for the rate boost was discontinued in Salem November 4 when Commissioner George H. Flagg ruled that the contract between the two companies must be approved before the proceedings could continue.

The contract effects the division of revenues from interstate business handled under joint rates between the two companies. In the hearing prior to adjournment November 4, the companies requested that the commission approve the new agreement.

slightly more than $3,000,000 based on sales volume for the past 12 months."

Citing examples of how the proposed rate revision affects residential customers using gas for house heating, Dodd said that a customer using 100,000 cubic feet of gas per year would pay 88 cents more for the year. For 125,000 cubic feet the annual increase would be $3.48, and for 150,000 cubic feet the annual increase would be $7.16.

"Payroll and oil together account for a cost increase in excess of $5,000,000 for the 12 months ended September 30, as compared with 1941," Dodd said, "while rate increases made effective since 1941 amounted to only
