Meat's Precious

Meat Packers Offer Recipes for Ways To Prepare Chops and Ribs

By Maxine Buren
Woman's Editor, The Statesman

Not that meat needs much dressing up these days, but women do like an occasional change from the regular ways to cook this precious food.

Take spareribs, for instance, here's a recipe recommended by the national packers of meat.

STUFFED SPARERIBS
2 sides spareribs.
2 teaspoons salt.
4 slices pineapple.
8 cooked prunes, pitted.
2 large apples, quartered.
1/4 cup brown sugar.
Place one side of spareribs on rack in open roasting pan. Sprinkle half the salt over meat. Arrange pineapple, prunes and apples over meat. Sprinkle sugar over fruit and place second side of spareribs on top. Sprinkle with remaining salt. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 2 hours, 8 servings.

Lamb's usually good, and it's popular especially when cooked the never broiling method.

Set regulator for broiling. Place chops on rack in broiler so the top surface of 1-inch chops is 2 inches from heat and 2-inch chops 3 inches from heat. Brown chops on one side. Season and turn. Brown on other side; season and serve at once. Allow 12 to 15 minutes for broiling 1-inch chops and 18 to 22 minutes for 2-inch chops.

Veal chops may be dressed up a bit more like this:

LEMON WHEELS
6 veal chops, cut 1/2 to 3/4 inch thick.
3 tablespoons enriched flour.
2 tablespoons salt.
1/4 teaspoon thyme.
1/4 teaspoon red pepper.
1 clove garlic.
3 tablespoons lard or drippings.
1 lemon, sliced.
1/2 cup water.
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.
4 whole cloves.
1 bay leaf.
Dredge chops in flour seasoned with salt, thyme and red pepper. Rub frying pan with cut clove of garlic; add fat to frying pan. Brown chops slowly on all sides. Place a slice of lemon on each chop; add water, Worcestershire sauce, cloves and bay leaf. Cover closely and simmer about 1 hour, 6 servings.

Maxine Weitman celebrated her 14th birthday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Weitman, on November 7. Honoring Maxine were Mrs. G. A. Haur, Dolores and Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Culwell, Joyce and Thelma of Lyons, Mrs. Ella Southworth, Leela Harris, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Weitman, Ricky and Phillip, Mrs. Joseph Weitman, Gordon, David, Earnest and Lilieth.

Bren-Holechek Vows Read

At the First Christian church Sunday afternoon, November 7 Mrs. Mayme Holechek and Anton Bren were united in marriage by the Rev. Dudley Strain at a one o'clock ceremony.

For her wedding the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Alice DeBow, the bride's only attendant, wore a wine suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

Joseph Janick was best man and Robert Tiernan the usher.

A reception was held at the bride's home on South High street after the nuptials. Mrs. Alvina Warren cut the cake, assisted by Mrs. Robert Tiernan, daughter of the bride, and Mrs. Lawrence Brown.

After a trip to California and Mexico the couple will be at home at 1584 S. High st.

Woodcraft Meeting

Thirty-five jewels will be presented at the homecoming meeting of Neighbors of Woodcraft at the Salem Woman's clubhouse Friday night.

A covered dish dinner is set for 6:30 for members and their families and the meeting will follow. A program is planned to honor Mrs. Lottie Townsend, charter member.

House guests of Colonel and Mrs. Phillip Allison were his brother-in-law and sister, Major General and Mrs. G. E. Fickel of Santa Barbara, Calif. The visitors are stopping here this week enroute east.

A proposal to include a bazaar with the traditional "hanging of the greens" on December 4 was referred to a committee for further consideration.

Regular committee reports to the board include one from Mrs. Howard Post, chairman of the younger girls committee, who reported the formation of a Tri-Y club at Lebanon, which the local association is supporting, and the many activities of the club at Fairview Home including a dinner.

Mrs. Arthur Madson, chairman of world fellowship week urged members who wish tickets for the smorgasbord November 20 to get them before November 10 when the sale will be open to the general public. A maximum of 400 can be seated for dinner and it is expected that demand will exceed the supply of available tickets.

Members of the ladies auxiliary to Patriarchs Militant will have a business meeting Thursday night, instead of the regular day which is Thanksgiving. The group will practice for inspection and nominations for officers will be made.

To Send a Package

Mrs. Lloyd Phillips entertained the Book and Thimble club at her home with Mrs. Robert C. Adams in charge of the program.
