

Pretty Soon It's Basketball

The popular cage sport will be upon us in less than three weeks, and already tuning up to make with the baskets for their respective outfits are the famed Johnsons, Bob and Jim, of Willamette (above) and Tom Paulus (below) who is expected to be a standout for the Salem high Vikings.

Hawk to Call Salem Cagers

Salem high's Vikings, runners-up to the Corvallis Spartans for state championship laurels last season, will open practice officially Monday for the 1948-49 basketball season. Hawk expects a large turnout, including some standout performers off last year's sophomore and jayvee squads.

The veteran Vik coach has a rebuilding job to do, as no less than nine of his first dozen players of yesterday are gone, including regulars Carlos Houck, Jack Miller, Dave Chamberlain and Ted Covatt. The only returnees are Forward Keith Farnum, Center Tom Paulus and Guard Bud Duval. It will be around this trio that Hawk fashioned his varsity team.

Salem's opening game is slated for December 4 with Roosevelt of Portland here. Other games in the husky schedule are with such schools as Jefferson and Cleveland of Portland, Oregon State Rooks, Oregon Frosh, Astoria, Klamath Falls, Hillsboro and Big Six league quints.

Linfield Tops Birds, 13-7

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 13 (CP)—A 45-yard touchdown pass in the last quarter gave Linfield Wildcats a 13-7 win over University of British Columbia in today's Pacific Northwest conference "battle of the basements." The loss gave U.B.C. a record of five defeats and one tie and a firm hold on the bottom rung of the conference standings. Linfield is one rung up.

Wildcats opened the scoring in the second quarter with Ron Fletcher taking a 27-yard pass from John Seeley to go over standing up. It wasn't until the dying minutes of the contest that Seeley connected with a long floater to Fletcher to sew up the ball game.

Michigan Rolls Over Indiana

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 13 (AP)—Unbeaten Michigan opened up a land and air attack today that pulverized Indiana, 54-0, the Hoosiers' worst beating since Michigan rocked them 63-0 in 1925. A chill-nipped crowd of 84,800 watched Coach Ben Osbert's Wolverines widen a slim 7-0 first period lead into their 22nd successive triumph in three seasons.

FOREST GROVE, Ore., Nov. 13 (AP)—Coach Paul Stagg's Pacific university Badgers knocked over previously unbeaten, untied Lewis and Clark college 41 to 0 tonight in a Northwest football conference upset. Stagg's boys pounded out the victory in a driving rain storm by overwhelming the favored Pioneers on the grounds and in the air, virtually stalling the Lewis and Clark offense.

Trojans Mash Huskies 32-7

By Bob Myers
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13 (AP)—Southern California's Trojans hooked up with their old rivals, the Washington Huskies, today and proceeded to slam out a 32 to 7 victory. Washington, losing its sixth game of a luckless campaign in the Pacific Coast conference, was never a serious threat but most of the 44,345 onlookers stayed on for the finish. Both teams opened up with aerial dikes in the last half.

Oregon Frosh Spank Pilots

PORTLAND, Nov. 13 (AP)—Emile Holman, ex-Fendleton high star, scored three times in the third period here today to lead the University of Oregon Frosh to a 28-0 win over the University of Portland freshmen. Another Eastern Oregonian, Jim Calderwood of Baker, gave Holman a big assist. Calderwood, who handles the passing for the frosh, found Holman with tosses for two of the scores.

After a scoreless opening quarter, the frosh began to roll in the second period. They marched 46 yards and Jerry Peckover hit the line for the final yard and a touchdown. On the first scrimmage play of the second half Holman opened his rampage. He sliced through left tackle and behind precision blocking went 65 yards to a touchdown. Shortly after, Calderwood whipped a short pass to Holman for his second score. It was Calderwood to Holman again for the last touchdown in a play good for 70 yards.

went for two and Harrington added six more. After Quarterback John Burleigh sneaked for one, Clabaugh again broke off tackle and rambled 15 yards to score. Bob Douglas, booting for the now injured Minn, made the conversion point.

The final WU score came late in the game when Burnell Ambrose intercepted a desperation pass by the Whits on their own 11. One play was all that was necessary and it was Howie Lorenz for the 11 yards and touchdown on it. Douglas missed the conversion this time.

Willamette plays Pacific U next week in their conference finale. At the same time, College of Idaho plays Lewis & Clark.

Team Match Mat Prelim

Matchmaker Elton Owen will go all out Tuesday night at the assembly to provide the customers with Grade A preliminary entertainment on the Farmer Jones vs. Kowdy Rufus Jones mat card. Owen has lined up a full - fledged 45 - minute tag team scrap for the special event, and will open the show at 8:30 o'clock with a single-faller between the Grey Mask and still another on the growing list of newcomers, Whitey Wahlberg, a blond "cleanie".

Participants in the tag team special will be the French terrifics, Maurice LaChapelle and Rene LaBell on one side, and against Gypsy Joe Dorsett and Canadian Herb Parks on the other. The return of Parks to local action, after the near-riot he helped explode last week, should be interesting.

The main event "Battle of the Jones Boys" will be their rubber match. The barefooted Farmer beat Kowdy Rufe here the first time, a month ago. But later in Roseburg the negro got even, and in so doing had to have police protection afterward. Billy (Marine) Fox will referee Tuesday.

play Estacada Friday, using mostly reserves. Estacada refused to play Mt. Angel's reserves, so that was out. As it turned out, the Preps played Estacada on Tuesday and Graham Thursday, a rough chore. All contracts were met and we trust that no ill-feeling exists between the two schools. Gosh knows it's hard enough to get football recognition for the smaller WVL outfits when it comes to state playoffs, so it's best they don't squabble among themselves . . .

Short story entitled, "What Can Happen in 10 Years," starring Mary Rickert, the Tacoma girl who was the last-minute world series outfielder for Boston. In 1938 Mary was lured from a farm at 6 p. m. one day, signed a Tacoma contract and went to work for the Tigers that very night in the outfield. Against Bill Fleming, Bellingham righthander with a smokeball (Bill was with Portland last season), Rickert fanned four times. He no sooner reached the dressing room after the game than he was handed his release. The incidents of 10 years later, which included a home run, need not be repeated to those who listened to or read of the 1948 series . . .

and in 1940, then as a member of the New York Yankee organization, he was with Idaho Falls of the Pioneer wheel. Bill caught for Spokane in 1941, before moving to Seattle of the Coast league in '42. The years 1943-44-45 were spent in the army as an officer and much of Beard's GI life was spent overseas.

In 1946 Bill returned to Seattle. Portland bought him in 1947 and sent him to Salem where he became one of the most popular as well as efficient players on the club. His off-season occupation is with a sporting goods store in Portland.

The new skipper is expected in Salem this week to talk over playing personnel and other plans with Emigh.
