Annual Tea Slated For Thursday

Highlight of Thursday will be the annual Harvest Home tea at the Methodist Old People's Home on Center street with the interested public invited to call between 2 and 5 o'clock. The Home is maintained by the women of the Methodist conference and is open to other men and women than Methodists. At present eleven denominations are represented at the Home. Guests may bring gifts of canned goods or staples or donations for the elevator fund which was started 2 year ago. The fund has progressed far enough now, that building of the elevator in the Home will be started this year, however additional contributions are needed before its completion.

Mrs. Willard L. Cole will greet guests. Mrs. Robert Moulton Gatzke will introduce to the receiving line which will include Mrs. E. O. Welling, president of the board of managers, Mrs. Clara Fletcher, matron, and Mrs. Ruth Fugate.

Presiding at the tea urns will be Mrs. C. D. Morse, Mrs. Ernest C. Richards, Mrs. Byron B. Herick and Mrs. Frank James. Serving will be Mrs. Virgil Hume, Mrs. Steve Anderson, Mrs. H. Gordon Carl and Mrs. Ervin Potter. Mrs. H. G. Carl is arranging the table, which will be centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums in autumn shades and matching tapers.

10 Don't suffer misery of RACKING COUGHS

Millions use PINEX for effective relief of coughs due to colds. Not just a tickle stopper—not just a soothing syrup! PINEX is a real cough medicine! Goes to work with decisive action—right where trouble lies—in the upper respiratory passages. Relieves dry tickling coughs, irritates—loosens tickle—helps raspy breathing—loosens cough-provoking phlegm. Wonderful relief! That's why PINEX has been a family favorite for over 40 years. PINEX GIVES ABOUT 4 TIMES AS MUCH FOR YOUR MONEY. You save real money because PINEX is concentrated—just the medicinal ingredients. You solve the simple syrup, sugar and water (liquid) instead of paying fancy prices for it in ready-mixed preparations. That's why you get a full pint of wonderfully effective cough syrup at about 1/4 the usual price. And you can't buy a cough relief at any other price. Get PINEX today at any drug store. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Smorgasbord Dinner on Saturday's Calendar

Scandinavian dishes from hearty Swedish baked beans and creamed codfish balls to delicate fattigman and rosettes are being prepared this week under the supervision of Mrs. Oscar Luudahl for the smorgasbord which will highlight the Festival of Nations Saturday night at the YMCA and sponsored jointly by the WYCA. The menu of a smorgasbord can cover almost the whole field of food, but a few of the other items on this particular menu are herring salad with sour cream dressing, baked ham, smoked salmon, Swedish meatballs, lefsa, orange rye bread, flat bread, lingonberries and a wide variety of fish and cheeses.

A large portion of the food is being prepared by Mrs. Luudahl with the help of other Scandinavian women in Salem. Mrs. E. L. Arneson is assisting with the buying.

The dinner is being served in the gymnasium of the YMCA where approximately 200 can be seated at a time. Tables decorated with fruit, vegetables and autumn leaves will be arranged as the spokes of a wheel. Hub of the wheel will be space for the floor show which will be presented at intervals while dinner is being served from 5:15 to 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Arthur Madsen, general chairman of the smorgasbord, has announced the following committees for the affair: Mrs. Pau Heath, smorgasbord table; Miss Ida Mae Smith, dining tables; Mrs. George Alling, Mrs. Irl McSherry, Mrs. William L. Phillips, Mrs. Guy Hickok, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Frank Weddle, Mrs. A. A. Schramm, Mrs. John Versteeg and Mrs. Robert Shinn, decorations; Mrs. Carl McLeod and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, table setting; Mrs. Ralph Moody, seating.

Mrs. Frank Bowder will supervise the waitresses which will be Tri-Y girls and bus boys provided by the Salem Hi-Y.

Hi-Y mothers and YWCA members assisting with the cooking are Mrs. A. C. Haag, Mrs. H. W. Hughtlett, Mrs. Harold McMillin, Mrs. Leo Peterson, Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, Mrs. W. F. Terlich, Mrs. Guy Hickok, Mrs. P. J. Meaney, Mrs. Lloyd Hoxie, Mrs. Harold Rosebraugh, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. John Caughell, Mrs. Albert Torgerson, Mrs. Ralph DaMetz, Mrs. P. D. Junior Women Plan for Sale

SILVERTON — Junior Women club members will hold their pie sale November 20 at Western Auto Supply store. Mrs. Alan Foster, president, has announced. The sale was first planned for November 13 but was postponed in deference to the Silverton Woman's club rummage sale.

The Junior women met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Fred Crites to complete plans for the sale which begins at 11 a.m., and also for the Chemawa-Christmas arrangements. Names of the Indian children will be drawn at the November 24 meeting so that each club member will know for whom she is buying the present. Work was also done on the Christmas seals sale which the club members direct. The seals were prepared for mailing with the work to be completed this week.

At the November 24 meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. James Ekman, Mrs. Virgil Pettit will speak on her two-year stay in France following the war. Special guests at the Wednesday night meeting were Mrs. Jerry Gastingueau, Mrs. Denzel Legard, Mrs. James W. Nelson, Mrs. Edward Hande, Mrs. Robert Edger-ton and Mrs. Leslie C. Anderson.
