Oats Closing Higher; Other Grains Mixed

CHICAGO, Nov. 20-(AP)-A late sell-out left grains with small fractional changes on the board of trade today. Some contracts were a little higher and some a little lower, and the only grain to show a consistent trend was oats. They ended higher.

During early dealings, the mar-ket pushed up in a brisk trade. December wheat hit a new high since April 11 while July and September contracts made peaks since trading in these deliveries started. Late selling in large part represented week-end profit-taking.

Wheat closed % lower to % higher, corn was % lower to % higher, oats were %-% higher, rye was 1 to 1% lower, soybeans were 1 cent lower to 1% higher, and lard was 30 cents lower to 63 cents a hundred pounds higher. A wide spread existed at the close in No-market value of all shares listed on the stock exchange increased by more than $1,000,000,000 although this was only a small part of the heavy losses piled up during the post-election selling wave. Progress in today's short session was at the same modest rate which prevailed most of the week.
