Miss Carol Crawford A Bride

Miss Carol Crawford and Dean Trowbridge exchanged their marriage vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony Saturday night at the First Baptist church. The bride is the daughter of the Ray Crawfords and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Trowbridge. The Rev. Lloyd Anderson performed the nuptials and Mrs. Anderson was the soloist. William Fawk was the organist. Lighting the tapers were Mrs. Jack Kuhn and Mrs. Allan Swaboda, who wore pink and blue hoop skirted dresses.

Mr. Crawford gave his daughter in marriage. Her bridal gown was of white satin with lace bodice and full bishop sleeves of lace. The full skirt ended in a train. Mrs. Jul Fear made her granddaughter's veil of illusion and lace and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Charles Haven, Jr. of Long Beach, Calif., was the bride's only attendant and wore a yellow marquisette frock over taffeta and a shoulder length veil of pale green caught to a crown of pastel flowers. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Rex Simmons stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Jack Kuhn, Harlan Crawford and Stanley Crawford.

Mrs. Crawford wore an aquamarine blue crepe gown with black accessories for the wedding and the groom's mother chose a burgundy crepe. Their corsages were of roses.

At the reception in the church parlors Mrs. Fred Kinsley, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Jul Fear cut the cake and Mrs. George Crawford, also a grandmother of the bride, poured.

Assisting were Mesdames John Meier, Harlan Crawford, Misses Lenore Beam, Janet Anderson, Joyce Ziegenthaler and Ruth Pauline Fugate. Gloria Brines and Mrs. Gene Borthwick sang during the reception with Mrs. E. Garrett the accompanist.

The couple will be at home on

Mrs. Ralph Caley entertained Saturday night for Wichita, Kansas to spend the Thanksgiving holiday with her mother, Mrs. F. S. McMullen. She will be accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. A. L. Horsman of Kansas City, Mo., who is returning to her home after a visit in Salem at the Caley home. Mrs. Caley plans to return to Salem in mid-December by way of Colorado Springs.

League Will Give Party

"United Nations" is the theme for the Salem League of Women Voters party to be given Friday night, November 26 at the Mayflower hall at 8 o'clock. Guests bidden to the post-holiday party are foreign students, those recently naturalized, G. I. brides from other countries, and foreign born residents of the Salem community. Additional guests will be husbands and friends of league members.

The entertainment will include a folk dancing demonstration, instrumental music and games appropriate to the United Nations theme, talks by school superintendent Frank Bennett, and Mrs. John Burcham, who attended the UNESCO meeting.

Miss Joy Hills will be mistress of ceremonies and hostesses in costumes of other countries will be Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. Hal DeSart, Mrs. Gerald Brownbill, Mrs. Robert E. Gangware, Mrs. E. B. Daugherty, Mrs. Arthur Bone, Miss Marguerite Gleeson, Mrs. Charles Layport and Mrs. Alden Boves.

Mrs. Gangware is chairman of the event and assisting are Mrs. John Clutter, Mrs. H. D. Smithson, Miss Gleeson, Mrs. E. M. Corrigan and Mrs. Ronald Rossner.

Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr. is leaving today for Portland to remain over the Thanksgiving holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buck.

North 18th street after their honeymoon. For going away the bride wore a russet wool suit with brown accessories.

Hostesses to Fete Miss Sears

Miss Peggy Sears, December bride-elect of Robert Tonnesen, will be the incentive for a pre-nuptial shower on Friday night when Miss Jane Carson, who will be home from the University of Oregon for the Thanksgiving holiday, Mrs. Ernest Hobbs and Mrs. Budd Coons entertain at the John Carson home on South Commercial street.

Guests, many of whom will be home from college during the holiday weekend, have been bidden to an 8 o'clock dessert supper and a kitchen shower will fete the bride-to-be. The buffet table will be centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums and matching tapers.

Honoring Miss Sears will be Mesdames James L. Sears, Glenn Paxson, John Carson, W. H. Moran, James Shaw of Forest Grove, James R. Phillips, Edward Salstrom, Courtney Jones, George C. Alexander of Eugene, Rhea Branson, Hubert Williamson of Long Beach, Calif., Misses Margaret Newton, Barbara and Gloria McClintock, Miriam Shellenberger, Dolores Clement, Barbara Sundet, Suzanne Small, Barbara Causey, Harriet Huston, Jean Claire Swift, Charlotte Alexander, Patsy Nickens, Carolyn Davis, Shirley Holmes, Donna Stoop, Patricia Schutz, Joan Fitzmaurice, Madeleine Keene and Anna Marie Hommeson of Corvallis, Mariann Croisan, Jackie Wachhorst of Sacramento, Donna Rankin of Coquille and the hostesses.

Mrs. Tyrone Gillespie and son, Tyrone, Jr., arrived in the capital by plane from their home in Midland, Michigan to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Johnson, until after the Christmas holidays. Mr. Gillespie will join his family here the 24th of December.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kugel will be in Portland Monday night to be guests at a banquet at the Multnomah hotel to be given by Pan American World Airways.
