Luella Basl Now Mrs. Nielson

STAYTON—Scene of a late fall wedding Tuesday morning, November 16, was the immaculate Conception Catholic church in Stayton, when Miss Luella Basl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Basl of Coon Hollow, became the bride of Donald Charles Nielson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nielson of Stayton, route 1. The Rev. Math. Jonas performed the ceremony, Roger and Eddie Nielson, brothers of the groom, were Mass servers. Mrs. George Van Dehey was organist and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Herb and Jeanette Musen sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white brocaded satin and carried a white prayer book which was topped with white chrysanthemums with white satin streamers. Her fingertip veil was caught in a headdress of orange blossoms. Miss Mary Lou Nielson, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. Her gown was of aqua satin and she wore a headdress of satin and net with flowers. Bridesmaids were Miss Alice Sandberg and Miss Marie Basl. Their gowns were of pink satin and they wore similar headdresses. All carried bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Judy Ann Nielson, another sister of the groom, was flower girl. She wore a frock of aqua satin. Dick Basl, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were George Basl and Cecil Herb.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Basl chose a two-piece dress of print with black accessories. Mrs. Nielson attended the wedding of her son in a brown two-piece dress with black accessories. Both had corsages of chrysanthemums.

A wedding dinner was served at the Santiam Valley Grange hall in Lyons with covers placed for a hundred guests.

A reception was held at the hall in the afternoon followed by a dance for friends of the couple in the evening. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Harold Brown. Miss Lora Schmid passed the guest book.

The couple left on a wedding trip to the coast, the bride wearing a brown suit for going away. They will make their home on the Lambrecht farm on Fern Ridge which was a gift of the bride's parents. The bride graduated with the class of '48 from Stayton high school and the groom graduated from the same school in 1945. He served in Manila in the radio division of the army during the war.
