Finale Set Saturday With Santa Barbara

Their Thanksgiving holiday over, Willamette U's footballers return to practice Monday to make final preparations for the final game of the season, Saturday at Bakersfield, Cal., with Santa Barbara. Coach Jerry Lillie last night watched the Gauchos their game with San Diego State, and intends spending three days of practice acquainting his team with what it will be up against Saturday.

The Methodist squad will leave Thursday via train. The game is being sponsored by the Shriners Planned Here

The week of rest for the Bearcats is expected to do wonders for their injury riddled ranks. Lillie now has hopes that Keith ton, Johnny Slanchik, Chuck Patterson and Gene Allicon will be again healthy enough to go full blast against the favored Gauchos. All have been in and out of the WU lineup the past month because of wounds.
