

Oregon Statesman
Women's Section
 SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC
 The Oregon Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Sunday, December 5, 1948

Working on final arrangements for the Salem Garden club's annual Christmas greens show at the Salem Woman's clubhouse Monday afternoon and evening are above, Mrs. R. E. Cartwright and Mrs. Ben Maxwell, who are putting the finishing touches on a tea table centerpiece to be exhibited. In the circle is Miss Edith Schryver, chairman of the show, displaying a colorful wreath of greens and fruit, also one of the exhibits. (Statesman photo by Don Dill).

Dancing Parties Are Slated

Dances always take the social spotlight during the holiday months with more than usual number scheduled for this year. Event of Wednesday night will be the Salem Army-Navy League's informal dinner dance at the Legion club, with dinner slated for 8 o'clock. The patriotic theme will be carried out in the decorations. Reservations may be made by calling any of the committee members pictured below by Tuesday noon.

Wisteria Club's Party

The Wisteria club dance will be Friday night at the VFW hall with Guy Albin's orchestra playing between 9 and 12 o'clock. The committee in charge includes Messrs. and Mesdames Louis Lorenz, chairmen, Edward Majek, Carl Soos, C. W. McCabe and Thomas McNeill.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fuhrer, Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Young and Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith have sent out invitations to eighty of their friends to a pre-dance party at the Fuhrer home on North Church street between 8 and 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull and Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Goodenough will be hosts after the dance for a midnight supper at the former's home on North 21st street for 40 of their friends.

Committee members for the Salem Army-Navy League's dinner dance on Wednesday night at the Legion club are left to right, Mrs. Sidney Schlesinger, the chairman, Mrs. Morris K. Crothers, Mrs. Robert Drager, Mrs. George Spaur, Mrs. Horace McGee and Mrs. Keith Flory. (Statesman photo by Don Dill)

Being welcomed back to Salem is Mrs. Hubert Williamson and small son, John Stuart, who have been living in Long Beach, Calif., since their marriage. Mr. Williamson is now in business here and they will occupy the North Summer street home of her parents, the John S. Locheads, when the latter move to their new home in Kingwood Heights. (Kennell-Ellis).

December Social Whirl

By Jeryme English, Society Editor

The pre-holiday social calendar is filled with numerous informal affairs including teas, luncheons and dinners. Mrs. Melvin Geist will be a tea hostess on Friday afternoon at her West Lef-felle street home for the pleasure of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald Campbell, who recently moved here from Sedan, Kansas. She has invited a group of friends to call between 3 and 5 o'clock to meet the newcomer.

Two Bridge Luncheons

Mrs. Arthur Erickson will entertain with two parties this week at her South High street home for a group of matrons. Guests have been bidden to one o'clock luncheons on Wednesday and Friday afternoons with bridge following. Covers will be placed for 12 guests each day. The holiday theme will be carried out in the appointments.

Dinner at McKay Home

The Jerris avenue home of Governor-elect and Mrs. Douglas McKay will be the scene of a no-host dinner party on Wednesday night when members of Mrs. McKay's bridge club and their husbands entertain with a pre-holiday party. In the group will be Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene of Corvallis, Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers, Judge and Mrs. E. M. Page, Dr. and Mrs. W. Wells Baum, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Dr. and Mrs. William S. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Slater, Miss Dorathea Steusloff, Mrs. Harry U. Miller and the hosts.

To Honor a Newcomer

Mrs. Gus Moore is planning a luncheon for one o'clock on Thursday afternoon at her Kingwood Heights home in compliment to a newcomer in the capital, Mrs. Fred Cords, whose husband is the new physical director at the YMCA.

Willamette university coeds planning the Panhellenic formal dance for Saturday night at the Labor temple are left to right on the floor, Joan Thomas, Barbara Bates and Helen Blevins; on the love seat is Barbara Goldman; and in the back are Ruth Jones, Donna Adams, and Joy Bushnell. (Statesman photo by Don Dill).