Drawing Fills Marion County Precinct Posts

Thirty-five republican and democratic committeemen and committeewomen in Marion county precincts where general election write-in votes resulted in ties were named by the county clerk's office Saturday following a special drawing. Ten precincts were still without committeemen or committeewomen because all write-in candidates refused to accept the positions. Of the total, 21 candidates were elected by default when their opponents refused to participate in the drawings.

Democratic committeemen and women by precincts: Chemawa, Mary P. Bush and Stuart Bush; East Hubbard, Ethel Shrock; Pringle, Annie Laura Kendrick and Arleigh W. Kendrick; Rosedale, Winifred E. Walker; Salem 7, Harriet A. Savage; Salem 12, Jefferson D. Simmons; Salem 13, J. Milton Best; Salem 14, Harley V. Cordray; Salem 26, Harry A. Robinson; Salem 27, Anna H. Jaqua; Salem 28, Eunice Ritchey and Wesley E. Ritchey; Salem 33, Richard M. Kolsky;

New Bridge Due Near Aumsville

A new bridge will be constructed on the paved cutoff road between Aumsville and the Aumsville road, Marion County Commissioner Ed Rogers said Saturday. The old bridge has four 21-foot spans set in concrete piers, Rice said, but it will be necessary to rebuild the upper part of the span which has become obsolete.

"Holly" Says

It's less than three weeks 'til Christmas and hundreds of people are making their selections each day. Dozens of women are buying their gifts now and storing them with us because they cannot trust their husbands—I mean they cannot trust them to keep their peering eyes and itching fingers out of the little packages they find around the house. If anyone tells you that women are inquisitive tell them they are dead wrong—why some of the stories these women tell us about husband's snooping around, punching this, pinching that, shaking something else trying to find out what Mrs. Santa has for them for Christmas. Well ladies you just fool them completely—come in and select anything you wish and we will keep it in our especially constructed manshooper proof vault until you call for it.

NOTE—Men, if you will come in we'll tell you something about women, but, brother, we wouldn't put it in type.
