Englewood P-TA Approves $1,500 Budget for Year

A budget of $1,500 for the coming year was approved by the Englewood Parent-Teacher association Tuesday at the Englewood school.

Furnishing a teachers' room in the new addition of the school will take $496 of the funds. $500 will assist in financing week day Bible classes at the Englewood church; $280 for a halopticon projector, portable phonographs and two tables for educational purposes in the school; and $90 for the Boy and Cub Scouts, Bluebirds and Camp Fire girls.

The P-TA discussed plans to sponsor an appearance of the Eugene Gleemen in Salem next spring, and a men's style show in January.

Englewood's sixth grade chorus presented a number of Christmas songs for the 230 members attending the meeting. The Rev. Lloyd Uecker of the Englewood church talked on the meaning of Christmas.

Business Loans Slump Sharply

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(AP)—A fourth consecutive week of declines in business loans was reported tonight by the Federal Reserve board.

The board said business loans by Federal Reserve member banks in the nation's leading cities, dropped another $68,000,000 during the week ended December 8.

That reflected a total fall of $124,000,000 since the peak of $15,583,000,000 in business loans was recorded December 1.

Parking Lot Near Capitol to Operate On Monthly Basis

Plans for a new auto parking lot, to be operated on a monthly basis principally to accommodate motorists in the state office building area, were announced Wednesday by Lloyd Keene and William Coon.

An old house at 151 N. 13th st. is almost completely razed. The lot, approximately 120 by 80 feet, will be filled and graveled. Readiness date is dependent upon the weather, said Keene. A building on the alley, leased to the state agriculture department, will not be disturbed.

Keene and Coon also own the adjacent Top Hat restaurant and ice cream parlor and service station.

Exchange Club Hears National Field Worker

While new in Oregon, the Exchange club is one of the oldest and largest national service groups, the Salem chapter was told Wednesday by Harry J. Gould, field worker and director of the national convention. He spoke at the luncheon in the Senator hotel.

Nominations for 1949 club officers were reported in by a committee headed by Wayne Hadley. Proposed are Peery T. Buren for president; Robert Brownell, vice president; George Martin, secretary; Sidney Hoffman, treasurer; Sidney Boise, Leroy Johnson, Roland Mersereau, Charles Pillette and Marvin Ritchie (three to elect) for board of control.
