Home Demonstration Agent Bulletin Gives Ideas on Sewing, Candymaking

By Maxine Buren
Statesman Woman's Editor

Country women, especially those who belong to the home extension units, have some advantages which city women do not. They have access to the fund of information which the home extension department compiles each month.

Of course this material is free for the asking, but one doesn't always think to ask.

Today we received a bulletin from the department, which is chock full of valuable material for the housewife.

The home demonstration agent suggests that you use your sewing machine, with stitch set at longest length, to speed up basting. Changing the length of stitch is good for the machine, rather than bad for it as some women believe, because it allows the machine to wear the parts in different places.

A hinged foot, which enables one to sew over pins, is available for many makes of machine.

One of the new plastic finishes is suggested for drainboard linoleum. Wax wears off the surfaces, but the modern plastic finishes will remain a long time to make the linoleum look very shiny.

The use of coat hangers to make Christmas wreaths, while not new, is always a good thing to be reminded of. Shape the wire of the hanger to make a circle, placing the hook at the top to use as a hanger for the wreath.

Greens should be prepared in 6 inch lengths. The little bunches of greens are wired onto the circle, beginning at the top, and stems are to be kept all running in one direction.

Wire to be used for fastening the greens onto the coat hanger, should be wound around a small stick, and unwound as needed. If wreaths are to be viewed from both sides, alternate the branches of green.

A recipe for taffy apples is given in the bulletin:

TAFFY APPLES

- 6 apples
 - 1/2 cup water
 - 1 cup brown sugar
 - 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 - 1/2 cup light corn syrup
 - 1 tablespoon butter
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Mix sugar, syrup and water and cook to a light crack (270 degrees) without stirring. Just before removing from fire, add butter and vanilla. Put wooden skewers in small firm red apples and whirl in the syrup until apple is completely covered. Remove quickly and let cool on a buttered platter.

To Visit Here From Brazil

Interesting visitor to arrive in the capital for the holidays will be Mrs. Elsie Gonzo of Juiz de Flora, Brazil, who will be the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lachelle, for several months. Mrs. Gonzo left Rio de Janeiro by plane, arriving in Miami on Wednesday. She is travelling by train across the states, stopping in New Orleans and Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Lachelle are leaving today for San Francisco to meet her mother on Monday, the three returning to Salem in time for Christmas. Mrs. Lachelle is studying at the Portland Art Museum and her husband is completing his education at Oregon State college.
