

Union Show to Provide Milk For Children

Cannery Scandals of 1949, a union school milk fund benefit stage show, will be presented at Leslie junior high school auditorium January 14.

Rehearsals for the 15-act presentation are being held at the Salem labor temple each week under the direction of Margaret Shaeffer, William Cartwright and Mary Bourke, all union members. The cast is made up of about 50 cannery union members, their families and members of several other unions. The show will feature songs, dances, a women's chorus, a pantomime and an act featuring Indian songs and dances by a group of students from Chemung Indian school.

Tickets are to go on sale December 27 at the labor temple and possibly in a few downtown business houses. Music for the performance and rehearsals is being furnished by Glenn Williams' Salem band, sponsored by the musicians' union.

Proceeds from the one-night performance, which will begin at 8 p.m., are to be distributed among various schools in the Willamette valley for their noon lunch milk programs, union officials said.
