2 Policemen Await Order to Return to Work

Detective Hobart Kiggins and Officer Leland Weaver, reinstated as Salem police officers Wednesday by the city civil service commission, were awaiting orders Thursday to return to their jobs.

The men were discharged from the force November 12 by Chief Frank A. Minto on charges of political activity. Their reinstatement Wednesday followed a 2½-hour appeal hearing by the commission.

Minto, on Thursday, said Kiggins would return as a member of the plainclothes squad on day shift. He stated, however, that Weaver would be taken off the traffic detail and assigned to other duties.

Weaver said he would rejoin the force as soon as his notice arrives. Kiggins had announced he would return only if he remained on the detective force. Both men will receive pay retroactive to the date of their discharge.

Give Hearing for CHRISTMAS

The Yule Bells ring; the children sing Their carols loud and clear. Oh sounds sublime at Christmas time— If I could only hear!

My loved ones greet me on the street: "A Merry Christmas, Dear!" And such 'twould be, it seems to me, If I could only hear!

In gifts of gold your love is told With sympathetic tear! Such gifts are fine. But, Dear, make mine: Love's grandest gift—TO HEAR!

A NEW WAY TO HEAR

What grander Christmas gift than the blessing of hearing again? Think what a joy it will be on Christmas morning when a new Beltone Hearing Aid brings in voices and music and greetings, clear as a bell. This tiny, beautiful instrument is fitted to the wearer's degree of hearing loss. Even severe cases can be fitted. No button need show in the ear. No separate battery pack.

Give Hearing for Christmas! Give a Beltone, the finest in hearing aids. Make this Christmas memorable for someone you love. (The Beltone is available on Easy Payments)
