Churches in Jefferson Area Plan Christmas Programs

JEFFERSON—With Christmas coming on Saturday this year, most of the local churches will present their Christmas programs sometime during this weekend, with the one exception of the Evangelical United Brethren church, which will have its program on Christmas eve.

The Methodists are emphasizing the spirit of giving in their Christmas observance this year. They are asking that gifts of canned fruits or vegetables be brought for the Methodist Old Peoples Home in Salem. Gifts of clothing are also welcomed to help fill their Mercy bags for the needy overseas. The pastor, Ivan Hadley, will speak on "The Promise Fulfilled," at the 11 o'clock worship service. The children will present their program Sunday night, December 19, at 8 o'clock. Numbers will include:

Prelude, Beautiful Chimes at Sunset, Mrs. Ivan Hadley; Processional; hymn, Hark, the Herald Angels Sing; reading, A Welcome, Julia Ann Goin; reading, The Best Story of All, Lloyd Cooper; Scripture reading, Jimmy Lyon; prayer, Lydia Dawson; play, The First Christmas, by the junior-intermediate and intermediate departments; song, Donna Argo; trumpet solo, Johnny Wright; carol reading, intermediate department.

The choir of the church is planning a carol sing for Sunday night, December 26, at 7:30. Christmas carols by the congregation, interspersed by numbers by the choir will start the program. The choir will sing Come and Worship and Shine On Christmas Star with a contralto solo, in a Lowly Manger by Mrs. Virgil Bailes; trio, Christmas Folk Song, Mrs. George Richardson, Mrs. Bailes and Mrs. Gilbert Looney; solo, Jesu Bambino, Mrs. Looney.

Out at the Talbot Community church, Rev. R. Rogers Idwin will preach his annual Christmas sermon Sunday morning, December 19, choosing as his topic, The Bethlehem Star. The children's program will be Sunday evening at 8 o'clock followed by treats for the children and adult's presentation of the Christmas Story. A special offering will be taken for those in real need.

Mrs. Ernest Freeman is in charge of the children's program at Talbot. Numbers include a reading, Tho I'm Little, Karon Turnidge; A Welcome, Carol Finlay; exercise, Just Because, Linda Heath, Sheryl Hochspeier, Jack Hutchinson, Lois Dye, Karon Driscoll; reading, As Good As Could Be, Stephen Edwards; reading, Four Words, Jerry Hutchinson; song, Silent Night, Mrs. Turnidge's class; exercise, Ring the Bells of Christmas, Evelyn and June Dye; reading, If I Had Been, Phyllis Specht; exercise, Giving What We Can, Georgie Potts, Dick

Legion Post Plans Christmas Party

A Christmas party for members of American Legion, Capital post 8, and of the women's auxiliary unit with their families will be held Monday night in Legion hall on South Commercial street.

A short business meeting will be at 8 o'clock to be followed by a program of caroling and entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Brown are joint chairmen of the affair.

The entertainment program is to include the Elks lodge quartet, Salem senior high school B choir, a group from the Armstrong school of dance, piano numbers by Roberta Meyer and solos by Dale Hagedorn, who also will lead the caroling. Refreshments will follow.

Members of the legion and auxiliary are asked to bring an item of canned goods. These are to be used in the post's Christmas packages for needy families.

Fire Association Holds Meeting

JEFFERSON—Members attending Central Willamette Fire Fighters association meeting at Brownsville Wednesday night were Fire Chief Gilbert Hoevet, Bert Person, Lefty Sarff and George Richardson. The next meeting will be at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Leo Weddle and Mrs. Leland Wells were guests at the 13th annual Christmas musicale presented by the AAUW in Salem Tuesday evening at the First Evangelical United Brethren church.

Dr. Arne Jensen and Dr. W. R. Endicott, Albany-Jefferson physicians, have opened their new medical clinic in Albany. However, they will continue to be in Jefferson each afternoon of the week, including Saturday afternoon.

The annual school faculty Christmas party will be held December 20 at 8 p.m., with exchange of gifts, program and refreshments.

Eagle and Dennis Archer; reading, 'Tis Christmas, Mylene and Montana Franz; exercise, Christmas Helpers, Bobby Irwin, David Finlay, Olin Loftus, Philip Hochspeier, Wayne Bennett; reading, Room at the Manger, Ardis Brown. Mrs. Gordon Turnidge is heading the adult's program, a pageant of the Christmas Story. Miss Bette Wintermantel will be Mary, and numbers will be sung by a quartet, Goby, June and Betty Schwab and Mrs. Irwin; organist, Mrs. Henry Turnidge; violin solo, Mrs. Irwin.
