

Rites Set in Seattle For E. M. Hammer

Funeral services will be held Monday in Seattle for E. M. Hammer, 80, former resident of Salem, who died after a long illness at his Seattle home Friday. Surviving are the widow, Addie Hammer, Seattle; son, Wilford Hammer, Seattle; daughter, Benjie Hammer, Seattle; brother, Raleigh Hammer, Aumsville; and sister, Mrs. Emma Kellis, Crescent City, Calif.

Services Held For Roy Rae

Final rites for Roy Rae, 66, resident of Salem for the past 35 years who died Wednesday at his home, route 1, box 488, were held Friday from Clough-Barrick chapel. The Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson officiated.

Rae was born Dec. 25, 1881, in Boone county, Nebraska, came to Oregon and was married to Maude R. Weaver in 1920. He and his brother, Elton Rae, founded the Rae Bros. meat packing plant and operated it for 20 years here. In 1941 he moved to his Polk county ranch.

Survivors are the widow, Maude R. Rae; daughters, Mrs. Lorraine Stoutenburg and Ruth Rae; sons, Donald and Lloyd Rae; grandchild, Gene Stoutenburg; brothers, Thomas of Salem and Elton Rae of Eugene.

Sen. Taft Says War Distant

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—(AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) said persons "closest to the Berlin situation do not expect any war to result from it."

The same opinion exists "among the people of the western European nations, though there is much apprehension," he added.

Taft made his comments in a prepared statement upon his return from Europe aboard the liner America after a 26-day tour of Italy, Switzerland, Germany, Holland and France.

At the same time he told newsmen that substantial reductions could be made in the economic cooperation administration aid next year.

Secret's Out In Wisconsin

WAUKESHA, Wis., Dec. 18.—(P)—The only Waukesha kids Santa Claus is apt to fool are those so young they haven't learned to read.

The rest of the small fry know all about the Santa Claus service instituted by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brown -- and their parents aren't happy.

The Browns' advertisements, you see, were in the form of cards affixed to doorknobs, and just the right height for school age children to read.

Dallas Man Charged With Reckless Driving

Daniel Mark Jones, Dallas route 1, posted $50 bail in municipal court Friday night on a charge of reckless driving after city policemen had followed his car through Salem.

Police said Jones told them he was "late for a basketball game." He will answer charges in municipal court January 8.
