

Miss Arlyn Sheldon a Bride

Pink and blue were the colors Miss Arlyn Sheldon selected for her marriage Saturday night when she became the bride of Eric Lee Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Carlson. The young couple exchanged their vows at the First Congregational church with the Rev. Seth Huntington performing the 8 o'clock rites. Mrs. Robert Fry sang and Mrs. William H. East, aunt of the groom, was the organist. The altar was decorated with bouquets of pink snapdragons, carnations and chrysanthemums. Lighting the tapers were Miss Joan Schwabauer and Miss Nancy Farrar, who wore old rose satin frocks.

Immediately preceding the bride to the altar was her sister, Shirley Sheldon, as junior bridesmaid. Walking before her were Mrs. Darwin D. Caspell as matron of honor and Miss Ida Fridell and Miss Charlotte Reeves as bridesmaids. They all wore identical bouffant frocks of steel blue satin fashioned with panier skirts, pepums, basque bodices, square necklines and cap sleeves. They wore matching satin halo hats and carried matching satin muffs to which were pinned pink carnations.

Of white slipper satin was the bride's gown, designed with a rolled satin berth, net yoke, double bustle and full skirt terminating in a train. A seed pearl coronet held in place her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of bouvardia centered with a pink orchid. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Perl Sheldon, was given in marriage by her father, Allen Desch stood with the groom as best man and ushers were Darwin Caspell, Michael Rothwell, Richard Whiteley and Ronald Clark.

Mrs. Sheldon wore a steel blue crepe gown with grey accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Carlson's gown was of wine crepe with matching hat and black accessories. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

At the reception in the church parlors Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer presided at the coffee urn and Miss Amanda Schwabauer cut the cake. Mrs. F. W. Farrar was at the punch bowl and assisting were the Misses Jean Doolittle, Lois Burris, Mary Massee and Mary Elizabeth Reinhart.

The couple went south down the coast to California on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride wore a wine coachman style suit with black hat and accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Carlson will live in Corvallis while he is attending Oregon State college.

The Etokta club Christmas party will be an event of Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry G. Carl, 965 E. St. A salad luncheon will be served at 1:15 o'clock. Mrs. Mason Bishop will lead the group in singing of Christmas carols and will be an exchange of gifts. The committee includes Mrs. Vard Hughes, Mr. Mason Bishop, Mr. W. W. Chadwick and Mrs. Ralph Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Fry (Marilyn Flohren) who were married on December 12 at the First Congregational church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Flohren and her husband is the son of Mrs. Beth Fry and Leo Fry. The couple will live in Salem. (Jessen-Miller)

Rites to Be Read Today

At a 2 o'clock ceremony this afternoon at the First Congregational church Miss Mary Catharine Hobson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lyle Hobson of Portland, will become the bride of Roy Lidstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anton Lidstrom of Prineville. The Rev. Seth Huntington will perform the rites and Prof. T. S. Roberts will be the organist.

For her wedding the bride will wear a white velveteen floor length gown designed with short sleeves and Peter Pan collar. For "something old" she will wear a Norwegian wedding pin given to her by the benedict's mother. Her shoulder length veil will cascade from a seed pearl headress which her mother had worn at her wedding. She will wear white mitts and carry a colonial bouquet of white carnations, bouvardia and blue forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Charles Urness of The Dalles will be her sister's matron of honor and will wear a royal blue corduroy dress. Bridesmaids will be Miss Jo Price of Corvallis and

Miss Broer Married on Saturday

A former Salem girl, Miss Marjorie Broer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Broer now of Grants Pass, became the bride of Robert Gallagher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gallagher of Salem, Saturday night at the First Baptist church here at 8 o'clock. The Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson performed the nuptials. Mrs. Walter Weathers was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a silver lame gown with all over embossed design of white plumes. The dress was fashioned with a hick neckline with a small V. long sleeves and a deep peplum which cascaded in back to form the train. Orange blossoms held in place her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of bouvardia and orchids.

Miss Laurel Fraser was the maid of honor and wore an orchid figured taffeta dress fashioned similar to the bride's only with short sleeves. Bridesmaids were Miss Roberta O'Neill, who wore lavender figured taffeta, and Miss Marilyn Broer, whose dress was of pink. They were made identical to the honor attendant's and they all carried matching muffs with lavender and pink chrysanthemums. Deanna Broer, in a white figured taffeta frock made like the bridesmaids, was flower girl; ring bearers were Frederick Broer, III, and John Broer.

Richard Gallagher was his brother's best man and seating the guests were Brady Gallagher, Bert Broer, Fred Broer, Jr., Melvin Broer and John Goffner.

Mrs. Broer wore a black floor length gown with cut steel bead trim and orchid and fuchsia plumes in her hair. Mrs. Gallagher chose a black gown for her son's marriage and both wore corsages of baby orchids.

The reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Bert Broer presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Fred Broer, Jr., served the ices. Cutting the cake were Mrs. Hal M. Orme and Mrs. John Broer, aunts of the bride.

The newlyweds left for southern California on their honeymoon and for traveling the bride carried a beige two piece wool suit with Russian squirrel cap and matching hat. Mr. Gallagher and his bride will live in Eugene while he is attending the University of Oregon.
