

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tonnesen (Peggy Sears) cutting the cake at the reception at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. James L. Sears, following their marriage on December 11 at the First Presbyterian church. The groom is the son of Captain and Mrs. A. S. Tonnesen of San Francisco. The newlyweds will live in Corvallis. (Jesten-Miller).

Carol Cain Now Mrs. Houck

White chrysanthemums and greens provided the setting for the wedding of Miss Carol Joyce Cain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Cain and Howard Roy Houck, son of Mrs. Joy Houck of Portland, Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. It was at 3:30 o'clock that Dr. Chester W. Hamblin performed the ceremony. James Jackson of Corvallis was the soloist and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs the organist. Lighting the tapers were Miss Charlotte Alexander and Miss Zeta Sinclair of Lebanon, who wore powder blue gowns.

Of ivory satin was the bridal gown fashioned with a marquise yoke edged in Alencon lace on the bodice. The full skirt, made with a train, was caught up in front with orange blossoms to reveal rows of lace ruffles. Her fingertip veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a white prayer book marked with a white orchid. Mr. Cain gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Beverly Nelson, wearing blush pink satin, was the honor maid. The bridesmaids, Misses Miriam Garland, Helen Findley, Leona Anderson and Marlys Sinclair, wore ice blue frocks. The dresses were all designed similar to the bride's with off-shoulder style necklines, short sleeves and full skirts caught up in front. They carried heart shaped bouquets of American Beauty roses and bouvardia. Junior attendants were Nancy Gay Brewer and Alexander Bradford, who wore ivory satin dresses and carried baskets of pink and white sweetpeas.

Brother Is Best Man

Ronald Houck stood with his brother as best man and ushers were Ronald Clarke, Roy Houck Jr., a cousin of the benedict, Herbert Miller and Jerry Bowder.

Mrs. Cain chose a burgundy faille crepe gown with orchid accessories for her daughter's nuptials and Mrs. Houck wore a royal blue gown with matching feathers in her hair. Their corsages were of orchids.

The newlyweds greeted their guests at a reception in the church parlors. Mrs. Sidney Blanchard of Port Angeles, Wash., cut her niece's cake. Pouring were Mrs. Roy Houck, Mrs. Herbert Miller of Portland, Mrs. Forrest Eccles and Mrs. Kenneth Ross of Tillamook. At the punch bowl were Mrs. Keith Brewer of Tillamook and Mrs. Waldo Caulfield of Portland. Assisting were Mrs. Herbert Appington, Misses Roberta Davis of Albany, Marjorie Evenson of Clatskanie, Joan Blaxall, Mariann Croisan and Geraldine Woodroffe.

The couple motored north to Seattle on their wedding trip and for traveling the bride donned a charcoal grey suit, the jacket fashioned with a cape, flamingo red at trimmed in black, red gloves and black accessories. The newlyweds will live in Portland, where he will attend Lewis and Clark college.

Housewarming Is Held

Dr. and Mrs. Willard N. Thompson, who moved the past week into their newly built home in Orchard Heights, were honored at a surprise housewarming Saturday night when 30 of their friends called. A no-host supper was served with Mrs. Hugh Adams and Mrs. William L. Lidbeck in charge of arrangements. The group presented the Thompsons with a gift for their home.

"Well, she's about so big---- around here..."

But it doesn't matter that you can only measure your favorite gift problem by the armful—if you guess wrong, she can get the right dimensions in Laros DIMENSIONAL* slippers after Christmas.

If the ladies in your family want slippers this year (and what woman doesn't), you can give them the nicest of all—Laros slippers in personalized dimensions.
