AWAY FOR CHRISTMAS... On the high seas on Christmas Day will be Mrs. Nora Thompson, who sails on the Lardine Wednesday for the Hawaiian Islands, where she will sojourn for three months. She will first stop in Honolulu to visit Ann Munson former secretary of the Salem Chamber of Commerce, who now holds a teaching position there. Then Mrs. Thompson will fly to Hilo to be with her son and his wife, the David Thompsons. David is labor representative for the five Hawaiian Islands.

Flying to Honolulu for Christmas will be the David Bennett Hunt and grandson Vernon, who leave Thursday by plane. They will be at the Royal Hawaiian hotel for two weeks and will attend holiday festivities at the hotel.

Bound for the south... Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Parker are driving south to Sacramento, who will spend Christmas with her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. William Parker, and most important of all their twin granddaughters, Cathy and Susan, who will be 18 months old. For New Year's the Parkers will go to San Francisco to be with her brother and his wife, Col. and Mrs. Tyler J. Walker.

A MUSICAL... Outstanding event of the year given by the Salem branch AAUW members is the annual Christmas musicale. On Tuesday night and The First Evangelical United Brethren church the singing. The dark woodwork of the sanctuary highlighted with dozens of red tapers. Holly wreaths, candles burning in the stained glass windows and the pews marked with holly and red satin bows. Two punch tables arranged downstairs in the reception room. Decorated identically with miniature trees and with tiny red bows and at the base colored Christmas beads. Flanked by tapers and greens.

The program... Betty Starr Anderson (Mrs. Robert) the soloist, who sang a lovely group of Christmas numbers. Though she only moved here in the fall with her husband and three children, she is not new to Salem, having graduated from Willamette university. Betty sang beautifully and her many Willamette friends were more than thrilled with her voice. For the occasion she wore a becoming black and red changeable taffeta gown with voluminous skirt and carried a red poinsettia encircled with black lace. The Willamette A Cappella choir, colorful in their burgandy and gold satin robes. Ralph Dobbs, pianist, and especially enjoyable was his playing of "Cazillon" by Liapounow. One could almost hear the Russian bells ringing outside. and William Fawk, organist, who also accompanied Betty for "O Holy Night". Several hundred attended. Number of men noted in the crowd. One event that should be repeated year after year. and there have been thirteen musicales to date.

PRE-HOLIDAY TEA... on Tuesday when Mrs. C. R. Kegan entertained at her attractive Fairmount Hill home for a newcomer, Mrs. Everett deWeese, who moved here in the fall from Portland. A charming person to know, she studied at the Sorbonne in France and the University of Munich after graduating from Smith college. and while in Portland did publicity for the Junior League. The deWeeses and their three children are now settled in their Fairmount Hill home, which they completely remodeled before moving in.

The decor... the tea table in shades of green. the cloth a pale green damask. an arrangement of acacia leaves, green tapers and wide satin ribbon and tiny figurines of lambs and angels for the centerpiece. At the tea urn. Mrs. Ward Davis and Mrs. Theron Hoover in black. and Mrs. Charles Wood wearing a brown silk crepe. on an occasional table a handsome antique English epergne in a turquoise shade filled with desert holly from Death Valley.

About the guests... Mrs. Joseph Hamer, who formerly lived here, down from Portland chic in a grey ensemble. Fetching hats. a white felt for Mrs. Alfred Gerlinger. a continental green velvet worn by Mrs. Arthur Fisher with her plaid suit. A perky red hat with feather highlighting Mrs. Clarence Hamilton's charcoal grey tulle. The ever popular black chosen by Mrs. Kenneth Wilson. a maroon line pouff on her hat. and black for Mrs. Robert W. Wilson, Jr. her quaint shoes with buttons up the side. Mrs. John Griffith attractive in a red and green plaid taffeta on a grey background.

WEDDING ECHOS... A Christmas setting for the marriage a week ago of Peggy Sears and Robert Tonnesen. red poinsettias the colorful note. white chrysanthemums and poinsettia bouquets at the altar. poinsettia at the base of the candle taper girls carried. The all white brocaded satin frocks of the attendants highlighted with the poinsettia and silver tricotene bouquets they carried.

About people... A contingent of the bride's Gamma Phi Beta sorority sisters and the groom's Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brothers filling the first three rows. Assisting. petite Dolores Clement wearing a gold brocaded frock. Patsy Nickens, who left college to be a career girl, down from Portland. Welcome home for the Hubert Williamsons, who have been in Long Beach, Calif., coming in with the Edward Salstroms. Outstanding. Mrs. Carl Porter's black ensemble adorned with a white ermine jabot and hat. Mrs. Arnold Krueger's stunning gown of black crepe with white satin draped neckline and rhinestone buttons down the side.

About the mothers... Mrs. James Sears made the handsome bottle green satin gown she wore for her daughter's wedding. Capt. and Mrs. A. S. Tonnesen, up from San Francisco for their only son's marriage, both gracious and pleasing to meet. she wearing a becoming royal blue gown. Captain Tonnesen brought his new daughter a genuine alligator purse for Rio de Janeiro, which she carried with her going away costume.
