Travelers to Be Honor Guests

Travelers are also taking the social spotlight during the holidays. Several parties are being arranged in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Lord, who is leaving in early January for the Philippines to visit her brother, Montague Lord, for several months, and Mrs. B. O. Schucking, who is accompanying Miss Lord to Hawaii.

Sunday night Mrs. Louis Lachmund has invited a few of Miss Lord's intimate friends to a buffet supper at her South High street residence.

Judge and Mrs. James T. Brand and Mrs. Chester Cox will be hosts for an informal at home on December 29 at their residence on Fairmount Hill for the pleasure of Miss Lord and Mrs. Schucking. Guests have been invited to call after 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Linn C. Smith will entertain informally at buffet supper on December 30 at their Chemeketa street home for twelve friends of Miss Lord and Mrs. Schucking.

Miss Dorothy Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Klein, whose engagement to George B. Folz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Folz, all of Salem, has been announced. No date has been set for the wedding.

Brides-elect Honored at Parties

Holiday brides-elect are sharing in much of the Christmas entertaining with parties arranged in their honor.

Miss Catherine Dallas, a dietitian in Dallas, Texas, and her fiancé, Luther Carson, a student at Dallas, arrived in the capital Tuesday to be the holiday guests of her mother, Mrs. Willis R. Dallas. The couple's marriage will take place on Sunday.

Parties Fete Miss Dallas
Several pre-nuptial parties are being arranged in compliment to Miss Dallas this week. Tuesday night Mrs. R. L. Forster, Miss Lillian Davis and Mrs. E. G. Clark entertained at the Dallas home on Center street for the pleasure of the bride-elect.

A green and white color scheme, Miss Dallas' Kappa Delta sorority colors, was carried out in the decorations. A miscellaneous shower fete the bride-to-be and a late supper was served by the hostesses to twenty-five guests.

Mrs. Arthur Bates will be a hostess tonight at her Rose street home in honor of Miss Dallas. A late supper will be served following a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect and an informal evening.

Honoring Miss Dallas will be her mother, Mrs. Willis R. Dallas, Mrs. Mabel Clock, Mrs. Reed Chambers, Mrs. Laura Eaton, Mrs. B. F. Schmoker, Mrs. Frank Talmann, Mrs. Robert Elfstrom and Miss Patricia Elfstrom, Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert and Miss Alceita Hulst, Mrs. D. B. Kleiberg, Mrs. Lattimer Chambers, Mrs. J. F. Bates, Mrs. Leo Reed, Mrs. Charles Siegmund, Mrs. C. A. Mulkey, Mrs. William Carlson, Miss Barbara Bates and the hostess.

Thursday night Miss Dallas will be honored at a party in Portland when a group of her Kappa Delta sorority sisters entertain.

For Miss Covert
Miss Virginia Covert, who will be married on Christmas Day to Doran Humphrey, will be the honor guest at a party tonight when Mrs. Oliver B. Huston and her daughter, Mrs. Maurice Fitzsimons, entertain at the Huston home on the North River Road. A late supper will be served after the bridal shower.

Bidden to honor Miss Covert are her mother, Mrs. L. S. Covert, Mrs. Donald Barnick, Mrs. William Shinn, Mrs. Rollin Haag, Mrs. William Duncan of Silverton, Mrs. Patrick Hayes of Seattle, Mrs. Samuel Tripp, Miss Evelyn Johnson, Miss Jeanne Busick, Miss Marjorie Henery and the hostesses.

For Bridal Party
Miss Phyllis MacGregor, who will become the bride of Robert Elgin on December 27, will entertain with a brunch at noon on Sunday at the Golden Pheasant for the feminine members of her bridal party. The affair will precede the wedding rehearsal.

Nuptials of Interest

Two out-of-town weddings during the holidays are of interest to Salem friends of the couples.

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will go north next week to Yakima, Wash. to attend the wedding of the former's granddaughter, Miss Muriel Oliver, and Loren Winterscheid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Winterscheid of Pasco, Wash. on December 30 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Oliver, at high noon.

Miss Oliver and her fiancé are graduates of Willamette university and members of Pi Beta Phi and Beta Theta Pi respectively. They will make their home in Philadelphia, where both are attending the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Winterscheid is enrolled at the medical school of the university and she is taking graduate work. They will live at the Settlement House on the campus.

Rites in Longview
Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hadley and children, Eileen and Allan, Governor-elect and Mrs. Douglas McKay, Miss Mary Lou McKay and Lester Green will be in Longview, Wash. on December 26 for the wedding of Mr. Hadley's sister, Miss Marilyn Hadley and Clell Conrad. The nuptials will take place at the Community church at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Hadley will serve as best man and Eileen will be flower girl. At the reception Mrs. Hadley will cut the cake. The Hadleys will go to Longview Christmas Day and attend the rehearsal dinner that night. They will be guests of his parents, the C. E. Hadleys.

Book and Thimble Club Honored
Annual all-day Christmas meeting of the Book and Thimble club was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Lacey. A no-host luncheon was served at noon with exchange of gifts following. In the afternoon Mrs. Lacey revealed her Longview friend and chose new ones for the coming year.

Members present were Mrs. Rollin Beaver, Mrs. Ross Damrell, Mrs. Harlyn England, Mrs. Conrad Fox, Mrs. Albert Issak, Mrs. Fred Kubin, Mrs. Ray Lacey, Mrs. Edna McCarthy, Mrs. Lloyd Phillips, Mrs. Charles Schwartz, Mrs. W. B. Sullivan, Mrs. Paul Wishart, Mrs. Will Kidwell, Mrs. Gerald Kubin, Mrs. Loren Hicks and Mrs. Robert Adams. Guests were Mrs. Marie Thomson of Scotland, Mrs. Roland Sugar, Mrs. Lewis and Miss Fern Morgan.

The next meeting will bring election of officers at the home of Mrs. Rollin Beaver. After the election of officers Mrs. Thomson and Mrs. Hicks will talk about conditions in Scotland.

Dr. Perry John Powers, son of Mrs. Mabel S. Powers, left by train on Monday for a two week stay in the east. He will spend the remainder of this week and Christmas in Baltimore at The John Hopkins, where he took his post graduate work. He will then go to New York where he will attend a meeting of language professors. Dr. Powers is an assistant professor of languages at University of Oregon.

Couple Will Live Here

From Chicago comes details of the marriage of Miss Joyce Zeiler and Russell Renner of Salem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Renner, ex. of Chicago, which took place on December 18 at the Martin Luther church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Alonzo Zeiler of Punksutawney, Pennsylvania and was given in marriage by her father.

The Rev. E. Huntley performed the nuptials and Annalisse Bromskie was the soloist. For her wedding the bride chose a grey gabardine suit with brown accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of white pom pom chrysanthemums centered with gardenias.

Miss LaVerne Renner was the bride's only attendant and wore a hunter's green gabardine suit with grey accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow pom pom chrysanthemums. Earl Renner, Jr. was his brother's best man and ushers were Robert, Jerry and Jack Renner.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Zeiler wore a rust crepe dress with corsage of yellow rosebuds and Mrs. Renner attended her son's marriage in a grey print silk dress and corsage of red rosebuds.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents after the nuptials. The newlyweds are spending their honeymoon in Chicago and will arrive in Salem to make their home after January 1. The groom is employed at the Interstate Tractor and Equipment Co.

Dyers Are Dinner Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dyer, Jr., entertained with a pre-Christmas dinner Sunday afternoon at their Chemeketa street home for members of her family.
