Funeral services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Fisher funeral home here, the Rev. Orville Mick officiating with interment in Willamette Memorial park.

Santa Claus in Stayton Saturday; Kiddies Get Gifts

STAYTON — The man with the whiskers and the red suit paid his annual visit to the children of Stayton at the free Christmas matinee provided by the Star theatre and the Stayton Lions club Saturday.

Capacity of the theatre was taxed with more than 700 children attending the show which was run twice with one at 1 p.m. and the other at 3 p.m. Roy Rogers in "Rainbow Over Texas" was the feature and there was also an Edgar Kennedy comedy "Trouble or Nothing" and a Walt Disney cartoon.

The treats were soon given out and it was necessary to open cartons of candy bars and give them out. Small kiddies greeted Santa Claus and one small tike was heard to ask Santa, "How'd you come to come to Stayton?" Harry Rowe was the man.

Lions members assisting were Lindsey H. Wright, Norman Peck, Marc Landon and Irvin Parberry, and M. Van Driesche and Mr. and
