

Silverton Chamber Breakfast Meeting Is Well Attended

SILVERTON, Jan. 6 — Almost every business firm in Silverton was represented Thursday morning at the first chamber of commerce breakfast held here in many years. V. V. Runyan, newly elected president, expressed pleasure at the turnout.

Plans were made to continue the breakfast meetings, the next one will be January 25 at 8 p. m. at Toney's.

Members voted to maintain a downtown office open during business hours, with a fulltime secretary in charge. Announcement of the place and the secretary will be made within a few days by the board of directors. Mrs. Robert Webb, who has been acting as temporary secretary, is ill at the Silverton hospital.

Plans for a farmers night were also discussed, and will be announced January 25. An annual festival was discussed favorably but no definite plans made as Silverton has a festival organization which must be consulted, members said.

Hubbard Woman's Club Meets at Strawn Home

Valley Obituaries

Mrs. Nora Baun

MONMOUTH — Funeral services were held Tuesday at the Evangelical church here for Mrs. Nora Baun, 72, who died January 1 at Dallas hospital. She had been in impaired health for several months, and in December fell downstairs while visiting the Claude Snairs here. Mrs. Snair had been caring for her until she was hospitalized last week.

Nora E. Fuller was born Aug. 15, 1874 at Punxatawney, Pa. She married George Baun. They came to Monmouth, bought land and built a home more than 30 years ago, where they resided until his death in 1935. Since then she had lived most of the time in Salem.

Two brothers survive, John Fuller of Monmouth, Ed Fuller, Independence, and a sister in Washington. Rev. W. N. Brown of Salem officiated. Interment was in Belvidere Memorial park, directed by the Smith Mortuary of Independence.

Mrs. Ida May Croissant

ALBANY, Jan. 6 — Mrs. Ida May Croissant, 77, died in a local hospital January 5 after an extended illness. Funeral services will be held from the Fisher Funeral home at 2 p. m. Friday, January 7. The Rev. Edward Terry will officiate. Burial in Willamette Memorial park.

Born April 9, 1871, in Quitman, Mo., Mrs. Croissant came to Oregon from Washington in 1889 and since had lived in Albany except for a few years at Mill City and Detroit. She was a life-long member of the Methodist church, and was a member of the Rebekah lodge and the Friendly club.

She was married twice, first in 1887 to George W. Rockwell who died in 1921. June 4, 1924, she married Charlie Croissant, who survives. Surviving also as a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Carrie Rockwell of Albany; four grandchildren, J. Norris Rockwell of Scio, Mrs. M. K. Buchner of Portland, Mrs. Virgil Stenberg of Eugene and Mrs. Bert Saylor of Albany; and six great grandchildren. Her only son, B. M. Rockwell, died in 1917.

Mrs. Mary L. Harris

ALBANY, Jan. 6 — Funeral services for Mrs. Mary L. Harris, 66, were held from the Fisher Funeral home today at 10 a. m. with Rev. Roy Strong officiating. Burial was in the Masonic cemetery.

Mary L. South was born Sept. 2, 1882, at Lacombe and lived for a time at Mayfield in eastern Oregon. Since 1919 she had made her home in Albany. She was a daughter of the late Jesse and Eliza Stringer South.

July 25, 1901, she married Calvin D. Harris who died April 15, 1948. Survivors are two sons, Perry E. Harris of Albany and Carl M. Harris of San Leandro, Calif.; two brothers, Perry South of Portland and Doc S. South of Redmond; and six grandchildren.
