Betrothals Revealed

Engagement news, many revealed during the holidays, continue to hold the social spotlight. Dr. S. A. Wheatley of Salem and Mrs. J. H. Ingram of Running Springs, Calif. are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Marie Wheatley, to Marston Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Lee, of West Salem. The wedding will be an event of February 11.

Miss Wheatley and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school and will make their home here after their marriage. The engagement of Miss Pearl Widmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Widmer of Woodburn, to Morley L. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake King of Alberta, Canada, was recently announced. No date has been set for the wedding.

Party For Visitor

Visitors in the capital are Mrs. Clyde Wiegant (Della Willard) and daughter, Carolyn, of Oakland, Calif., who are guests at the home of his mother, Mrs. L. C. Marshall. Mr. Wiegant was here during the holidays, but since has returned south, where he is engaged in research work at the University of California.

Mrs. William Hall entertained informally for Mrs. Wiegant at her home Friday afternoon. A dessert luncheon was served by the hostess.

Honoring the visitor were Mrs. Otto Skopil, Jr., Mrs. C. M. Collins, Mrs. Steve Anderson, Mrs. William Byars, Mrs. Lloyd L. Hunter, Miss Jessica Kinsey and the hostess.

Sojourners will meet for a salad luncheon and afternoon of bridge on Thursday at the Salem Women's clubhouse at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Roy Todd is chairman and assisting are Mrs. Howard Hosken, Mrs. Roger Hoy, Mrs. Arthur Lewis, Mrs. E. J. Church and Mrs. Franklyn R. Hyatt.
