

Rites Read At Church Saturday

The wedding of Miss Helen Doris Friesen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Friesen, and Robert K. Hasselblad, son of Mrs. Mabel Hasselblad of Tacoma, was solemnized Saturday night at the First Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Orval Jenkins performing the 8 o'clock nuptials.

Lighting the tapers were Mrs. Gordon Beecroft and Mrs. Landy Franz, who wore yellow frocks. Willard Friesen sang at his sister's wedding and William Fawk was the organist.

Of white satin was the bridal gown, fashioned on princess lines with a train, with a wide lace ruffle. A headdress of satin and lace held in place her fingertip length veil and she carried a bouquet of carnations centered with an orchid and tied with orchid ribbon. Mr. Friesen gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Jack Finden was her sister's matron of honor and wore an orchid faille gown. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruby and Miss Opal Friesen, cousins of the bride, and Miss Bette Friesen, sister of the bride, whose frocks were of apple green faille. The gowns were all styled identical with gathered skirts, puffed sleeves and net yokes on the bodices. They wore bands of flowers in their hair and carried colonial pastel nosegays. Kathy Friesen, in a white floor length frock, was flower girl and Harlan Friesen was ring bearer.

Attend the Groom
Robert E. Lean was best man and groomsmen were Roger and Mark Westby and John Fister. Ushers were Ernest Friesen and Jack Finden.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Friesen wore a navy blue dress-maker suit with rose blouse and accessories and corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother wore an aqua crepe gown and gardenias.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the rites. Mrs. Gaylord Sherman was in charge of the dining room. Mrs. Willard Friesen cut the cake. Mrs. Ernest Friesen presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Robert Lean was at the punch bowl. Assisting were Miss Delores Friesen, Miss Estella Schroeder, Mrs. William Fawk, Mrs. James Montgomery, Miss Florence Frey and Marilyn Friesen who passed the dream cakes.

After a wedding trip along the Oregon coast the couple will be at home in Tacoma, where he is in business. For going away the bride donned a green suit with snake-skin shoes and purse, and a beige felt hat trimmed in green velvet ribbon.

WSCS Guest Day Program Slated

Guest day will be a feature of the WSCS meeting of the First Methodist church on Wednesday at the church. A business meeting will be held at 10:45 a. m. with a sack luncheon at noon. The program will follow at 1:15 o'clock with Mrs. J. E. Sayre leading the devotions.

Several studies under the general theme, "We Offer Unto Thee Ourselves," are planned for the next few months, the first one being "Advanced Program." The Rev. Brooks Moore will speak on this subject showing how it is related to the church as a whole and Mrs. Waldo Zeller will show how it is related to the WSCS and will be assisted by several members. Mrs. Ervin Potter and Mrs. Winston Taylor will sing a group of duets.

A tea hour will follow the program with Circle No. 5 as hostess with Mrs. C. H. Sawyer as chairman. Members are asked to bring guests. Mrs. A. A. Lee is chairman of the guest day committee.

Martha Ferguson McKeown, Oregon writer, will be the guest speaker at the Salem Woman's club literature and poetry group meeting on Tuesday at the clubhouse. Coffee will be served at 1:30 with the program following at 2 o'clock. Friends of Mrs. McKeown and interested persons are invited to attend the meeting.

Kappa Delta alumnae will meet on Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. G. Rankin, 150 Kingwood avenue. Mrs. William Ashby will also be assisting hostess.

Miss Irene Mary Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles H. Johnson, whose betrothal to Jack Walter Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, all of Salem, has been revealed. No plans have been made for the wedding. The benedict-elect is stationed at Fort Ord with the army. (Jesten-Miller).

Guild Will Hear Miss Fairham

Westminster Guild members will meet for a one o'clock dessert luncheon on Wednesday afternoon at the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Samuel Harbison is chairman of the luncheon committee. Mrs. Charles Layport is arranging the program and the speaker will be Miss Jessie Fairham of Erith, Kent, England, who will discuss "Life in England." Mrs. Hobart Jackson will sing and Mrs. Roy Lockenour will lead the devotions.

The McKinley Mothers club will meet at the schoolhouse Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. Dr. W. J. Stone, Marion county health officer, will tell of the new physiotherapy unit to be installed at the Salem Memorial hospital.

Salem Council of Womens organizations will meet at the chamber of commerce at 2 p.m. on Thursday. Miss Jessie Fairham, a visitor from Erith, Kent, England, will speak about her country.
