IF YOU WANT Warm Comfort Quickly....

YOU WANT THE FAN-GLO HEETAIRE

The only heater built that gives both kinds of heat—infra-red rays plus fan-forced heated air!

You don't have to stand directly in front of it—and you don't have to wait until every nook and cranny of the room is heated. The radiant elements produce hot infra-red rays instantly—the scientifically engineered reflectors direct them into the area of use—and the quiet fan forces heated air to where you are front of once and then circulates warm air throughout the room. The FAN-GLO HEETAIRE gives BOTH types of heat—the only heater that gives this combination—hot infra-red rays, plus fan-forced heated air! WARM COMFORT QUICKLY!
