

Friel Fears Future Contests

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, Jan. 19 (Special)—Although the Washington State Cougar hoop squad is leading the northern division pennant race with four wins and no losses and is also ranked as the leading once beaten team in the nation, Coach Jack Friel isn't at all optimistic about the rest of the schedule. "The only thing I can look ahead to are four rugged games with Idaho and Oregon State and two more each with Oregon and Washington," stated Friel.

Last weekend the Cougars ran over and under the Washington Huskies to add two more wins to record, making it 17 wins and one loss for the entire season. In the Washington series it was Hogue's Ed Gayda and Okanogan's George Hamilton who spearheaded the Cougar attack as both men were red hot.

Leading the scoring parade for the Cougars in northern division play is forward Gayda with 52 markers. Breaking down Gayda's scoring for the four games shows he has made 22 field goals and eight free throws. Closely following Gayda is George Hamilton with 36 markers, with 14 field goals and eight free throws. Other leading scorers for the four games are: Bob Elliott with 18; Ron Button, Ray Arndt and Frank Mataya with 15 each. Bob Gambold has 13 points to close out the scorers above the 10 point mark. Of 16 players used in the four games all but two have broken into the scoring column.

Gayda also leads the Cougar scoring parade for the entire season of 18 games with a total of 208 points, which breaks down to 84 field goals and 40 free throws.

Kansas' Phog Allen Receives Sharp Rap from Campus Sheet

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 19 (AP)—The Washington University campus newspaper "Student Life" editorially lashed out at Kansas university basketball coach Forrest C. (Phog) Allen today.

"College athletics are undergoing a slow but steady change which, if continued, could well prove to be the ruination of scholastic sports," the editorial stated.

"This movement toward professionalism, with its accompanying burning desire for victory, hoodlumism, official-baiting, and general misuse of all ideals of sportsmanship, was well demonstrated Saturday night, when an evening of bickering and complaining by the Kansas university basketball team culminated in an attack on referee Eddie Davidson. 'Forrest C. (Phog) Allen has been coach of basketball at Kansas for 32 years. In all that time, he has learned how to fashion a good basketball team but, judging from his actions and that of his team, he still is a beginner when it comes to decency and sportsmanship on the court.'

The newspaper referred to an outburst during the game between Washington and Kansas when Davidson was struck with a basketball and later struck at Allen. Conflicting versions of the argument later were given by Allen and Davidson. Kansas won the game 46 to 41.

Slightly Sliced

Jud McAtee, veteran Tulsa, Okla. ice hockey player shows where 76 stitches have been taken in his face, tokens of his many games on the ice. He doesn't look like this now, of course. His picture was "louched up" merely to show where the wounds were inflicted from time to time. Harmless game, eh?

Report Says Stiner'll Stay

CORVALLIS, Ore., Jan. 19 (AP)—A campus spokesman said tonight that Oregon State's head football coach, Lon Stiner, had definitely discarded any thought of going to Nebraska.

The Oregonian said that the OSC spokesman declined to be named and that Stiner was not available, but that Stiner was going ahead with 1949 football plans for the Beavers.

"Lon wants to stay at Oregon State," the spokesman was quoted as saying by the newspaper.

Cookies Necessary For Well Stocked Pantry Though Time of Holiday Over

Though the holiday cookie season is over, there's still a demand for the easily made confections. Dates, usually to be found in the market now, go into this cookie.

- DATE FANCIES
- 1/4 cup shortening
  - 1/4 cup brown sugar
  - 3/4 cup dark corn syrup
  - 1 egg
  - 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
  - 2 teaspoons baking powder
  - 1/2 cup milk, water or orange juice
  - 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1 cup chopped dates

Cream shortening and sugar, add syrup. Sift and add flour, baking powder, salt. Dust chopped dates with flour, add rind and dates. Drop by teaspoonful on baking sheet. Bake at 375 F. about 10 minutes.

- Then there's this good old standby:

Sports Shorts OUT OF THE PAST...

19 years ago this month: Primo Carners, Italian Giant and ex side-show attraction made his American boxing debut a success in Madison Square Garden, when he stopped Big Boy Peterson in 1 min. and 10 sec. of the first round. Carners dropped Peterson with a left to the body in the first exchange of blows and then caught him with a right to the head as he came off the canvas to send him back down and out. Carners appeared very fast for a big man and the talk around ringside after the fight was a match between Prims and Jack Sharkey, leading heavyweight contender.
