Nuptials of Interest
From Vancouver, Wash. comes news of the marriage of a former Salem girl, Miss Donna Rae Ahrens, daughter of Mrs. Gordon J. Weum of Vancouver, formerly of Salem, and Eugene Roy Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Cook of Vancouver, which took place on Sunday, January 16 at St. Luke's Episcopal church at 7:30 o'clock.

For her wedding the bride chose a dove grey suit and hat with grey and pink accessories and corsage of pink roses and gardenias.

Miss Patricia Knight of Vancouver was the honor maid and wore a lavender suit with navy accessories. Andrew Formdley of Vancouver was best man.

A reception was held at the Weum home following the rites. Mrs. E. D. McCarty, formerly of Salem and grandmother of the bride, poured. Mrs. Robert Turley of Salem cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Frank Cramer and Mrs. Richard L. Cooley.

After a wedding trip north to Seattle and Victoria, B. C., the newlyweds will be at home in Vancouver. The new Mrs. Cook attended Salem schools before moving to Washington.

Watkins Is Speaker
Salem Credit Women heard Ford E. Watkins, assistant manager of the First National bank speak on credit and use of personal loans, when they met at Nohlgren's for breakfast on Tuesday morning. Twenty three members attended the regular meeting.

Woman's Relief Corps will meet
Friday at the VFW hall for a covered dish luncheon at noon. The installation of new officers will take place in the afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members and friends are invited to attend the open meeting.

Legislative Tidbits

THE SOCIAL WHIRL... is well underway for the legislative contingent... The Dean Walkers were at home Wednesday night at their independence residence... an informal get-together for the senators and their wives... A full day next Tuesday to usher in the week's activities... a noon luncheon at the James T. Brand home when the supreme court justices were at home Wednesday night... Albert T. Anderson, Mrs. Carl Schneider and Mrs. P. Wayne Rose (Anne Marie Doerfler) for her father, Rep. Frank Doerfler... In committee rooms, doorkeepers, etc... Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Donald Burke, Mrs. Marion Lamb, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. J. N. Bishop, Mrs. Gus Moore, Mrs. Peery T. Buren, Mrs. Robert Joseph, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, Mrs. Lawrence Anderson, Mrs. Warren Pohle, Mrs. Calvin Kent, Mrs. James McFarland, Mrs. Howard Conkle and dozens more... Even the wives of the press busy at work while their husbands turn out reams of copy... Mrs. Ralph Watson, probably the veteran of the group, having accompanied her husband to legislative sessions since a bride... but she won't tell us how many... Mrs. Wayne Pettit... and from Portland, Mrs. Larry Smyth, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Jr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapman.

On the payroll... Some we haven't mentioned and discover, as we strolled through the house and senate and around the corridors... Kay Gouley as secretary to Rep. Harvey Wells of Portland... Other secretaries... Mrs. Robert Kresson, who commutes from Dallas each day... Mrs. Albert T. Anderson, Mrs. Carl Schneider and Mrs. P. Wayne Rose (Anne Marie Doerfler) for her father, Rep. Frank Doerfler... In committee rooms, doorkeepers, etc... Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Donald Burke, Mrs. Marion Lamb, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. J. N. Bishop, Mrs. Gus Moore, Mrs. Peery T. Buren, Mrs. Robert Joseph, Mrs. F. W. Mrs. Wayne Pettit... and from Portland, Mrs. Larry Smyth, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Jr. and Mrs. C. C. Chapman.

Chatted... with Mrs. Joseph M. Dyer of Astoria in the house chamber earlier in the week... her husband serving his first term as representative and she his secretary... Mrs. Dyer, who will be remembered by her Salem and Willamette university friends as Genevieve Thompson, looked smart in a grey plaid suit... Their son is in school in Arizona for the winter and during the session the Dyers are with the Frank Van Dykes at the Kingwood Heights home of Mrs. H. H. Barlow... and Mrs. Van Dyke busy as secretary to Rep. David Baum of LaGrande, whose wife is a committee clerk... Another former Willamette university couple noted in the house... Rep. and Mrs. C. K. McCulloch (Beverly Nordman) of Baker... Beverly is also her husband's secretary and they are enjoying their stay again in Salem... Charles is a Willamette law school graduate... Back again... are the Joseph Harveys of Portland... his fourth term in the house... they have an apartment at the Albert Gragg home during the session... Mrs. Ralph T. Moore chic in a red suit with box jacket again secretary to her representative husband from Coos Bay... they are at the Ambassador apartment for the coming few months... A charming new comer we met in the house... Mrs. John Hunsell of Hood River, whose husband is also serving his first term... and she his secretary... Already friends are Mrs. Hunsell and Mrs. Robert

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson of Seattle, former Salem residents, were in the capital for a few days.
