Wedding at Wassam Home

Before a spring setting at the North Capitol street home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wassam, Miss Mildred Wassam became the bride of David E. Hillerich, son of Hite Hillerich of Arlington, Thursday night. The Rev. Brooks Moore of the First Methodist church performed the 7 o'clock nuptials before members of the two families and a few friends.

Mrs. Malcolm Ramp sang "At Dawning" and played the wedding music. Mrs. Chester Howe lighted the tapers and wore a navy blue suit with corsage of pink camellias and hyacinths. The couple exchanged their vows before the fireplace which was banked with arrangements of heather, huckleberry and white ribbon streamers and bows.

Mr. Wassam gave his daughter in marriage and for her wedding she chose a frost green wool suit fashioned with single breasted jacket. Her accessories were balenciaga and her white felt hat was adorned with a balenciaga veil. She carried a nosegay of white bouvardia, stephanotis and narcissus centered with green orchids.

Miss Nancy West of Berkeley, Calif., and a student at Oregon State college was her aunt's only attendant. She wore a forest green suit and matching hat with gold trim and mink brown accessories. She carried a nosegay of salmon pink roses and bouvardia. Jack Larkin stood with the groom as best man.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Wassam wore a blue print afternoon dress and corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Louis West of Berkeley came north for her sister's marriage and will remain for a week.

At the reception Mrs. Malcolm Ramp poured and Mrs. Glenn Holman cut the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Theodore Kerr and Mrs. Norma Schnoebelin. Ann Erickson passed the guest book.

After a trip along the Oregon coast the newlyweds will be at home in Salem at 1065 Madison street. For traveling the bride wore a fur coat over her suit to which was pinned green orchids.

"Bit O Sweden" Theme of Party

"A Bit o' Sweden" will be the theme of the party for the Baptist Youth of the First Baptist church Saturday, January 22 at 8:30 p.m. All the members of the Youth group and their friends are invited. The regular meeting room of the group in the church basement will be transformed into a Swedish peasant's home. Swedish motifs and snow equipment for winter months will add to the decorations. Each person is to wear a costume pertaining to the country of Sweden, like that of the Swedish peasant folk.

During the evening a social hour of games and entertainment will be held. Later, before the Swedish refreshments, a short devotional program will be given.

Committee chairmen for the affair include: Marilyn Broer, Donna Hussey, Alice Goffrier, Ardith Combs, Carolyn Davis, John Periman, Elvis Dunn and Norman E. Mann.
