Hogan Hits Hot Round To Snatch Links Lead

LONG BEACH, Calif., Jan. 22-(P)-Ben Hogan, with a brilliant five-under-par 68 shot in the rain, moved to the top spot at the midway mark of the $10,000 Long Beach Open golf tournament today. Posting a 36-hole card of 68-66-134, Hogan goes into the third round tomorrow eight strokes under par 71 for the Lakewood country club course and one stroke ahead of challenging Chick Harbert.

Harbert belted a 68 for a total of 135 and one stroke back of him came another first round pace setter, Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, with a 69 for 136. Rain in various quantities pelted the players and a courageous gallery of several thousand until late in the afternoon, when the sun made an embarrassed appearance.

Tied at 137 were Jimmy Demaret with a 70 today, and Jack Burke of New York, with 69. Harbert, Demaret, Ferrier and Skip Alexander led the field going into today's round, each with 67. Alexander, far from being a mudder, soared to a 78 for 145. Lloyd Mangrum, generally rated as Hogan's chief threat among the professionals, dropped back to 141 with a 71, tied with E. J. (Dutch) Harrison who shot a 73.

Feller Ready To Take Cut

NEW YORK, Jan. 22-(P)-Bob Feller may get a $10,000 cut in salary next season but he will still be baseball's highest paid pitcher. The fireball righthander of the world champion Cleveland Indians is slated to meet with Tribe Owner Bill Veeck early next week to discuss his contract. Although hardly discouraged by his failure to notch 20 victories last season for the first time in six complete seasons, Feller agrees with Veeck that a cut is forthcoming. Bob earned $82,500 in 1948.

New Commish For A-A Loop

CHICAGO, Jan. 22-(P)-The All-America football conference today completed preparations for its renewed box office war with the rival National football league by changing commissioners and adopting a Shaughnessy play-off plan. The new commissioner, Oliver O. Kessing, 58, was chosen after the league accepted the resignation of Admiral Jonas Ingram, commissioner for two years. The conference solved its schedule problem by adopting a 12 game home and home program. The regular season play will culminate in a Shaughnessy style play-off.

Longshot Cops Margarita 'Cap

ARCADIA, Calif., Jan. 22-(P) A rank outsider, Lurline B., won the 12th running of the Santa Margarita handicap at Santa Anita today. The race, worth $82,400, was run over a quagmire before 36,000 rain-drenched spectators. Danada Gift was second and Ala Blue third. The time was 1:53. Lurline B., a four-year-old brown filly by the great California stallion, Alibhai and Belle Caine, came from the pack on the last turn and staged a thrilling duel with the pace setter, Alabule. Lurline B. rewarded her backers with $62.20 to win today, $24.30 to place and $10 to show.

Berg Retains Front Position

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 22-(P)-Red-haired Patty Berg soared to a 76 in the Tampa women's open golf tournament here today, but held first place by one slim stroke at the end of 54 holes. Her score over the 6,093-yard par 70 Palma Ceia course is 77-68-76-221. Tied for second at 222 were two other pros, Louise Suggs and Babe Zaharias. Miss Suggs, in the last threesome to finish, missed a three-foot putt on the 18th which would have given her a tie with Miss Berg.

PILOTS TRIUMPH PORTLAND, Jan. 22-(P)-The University of Portland Pilots turned on the heat tonight to come from behind and defeat Seattle college 51 to 43, and take both games of the series here.

STANFORD VICTOR PALO ALTO, Calif., Jan. 22-(P) The Stanford basketball team downed its nearby neighbors from Santa Clara 65-45 here tonight for its 15th win in 17 starts.

At Salem Schools ...

By James Cooke Statedman School Correspondent BUSH SCHOOL Third grade students of Mrs Mildred Wyatt's Bush class were termed "real trowsers" when they came to school Friday in order to present their scheduled program for a school assembly. They were all there despite the fact that many of them usually come by bus and buses didn't run in Friday morning's snow. Some of them persuaded their parents to take them to school but others braved the stormy weather and walked long distances so that "the show could go on."

The entire class was present to put on the program, a result of class studies, and which many parents attended. Paul Allen was master of ceremonies for the program which was named "The Twelve Sillies."

ENGLEWOOD SCHOOL "Winter and the Snowman" was the timely subject for the program presented by Englewood first graders under the direction of Mrs. Sadie Grant. The students used appropriate songs and poems on the subject.

Another story, "The Duck's Umbrella," was previously given by Mildred Randolph's fourth grade class for an illustrated story hour. Five new safety monitors were appointed last week at Englewood to serve during the dangerous winter months. They are Velva Clark, Terry Salisbury, Vern Lentz, Jerry Simmons and Don Dannigan.

WEST SALEM JUNIOR HIGH The West Salem junior high orchestra will play Wednesday at a Lions club dinner to be held in the school cafeteria.

During the month of January, West Salem students may either attend the noon movies on Wednesdays or they may dance during the hour in the gym. A different faculty adviser is appointed each week by the student council to supervise the activities.

Favorites Lag In Hialeah Go

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 22-(P)-A pair of comparative outsiders — three rings and first nighter — picked off the top money in the $10,000 added Royal Palm handicap at Hialeah today. Three rings beat First Nighter by a half length in the mile and furlong feature. Calumet Farm's favored Faultless was third, three lengths behind the winner. Fred Hammer's South American importation, Marchons II, seeking his sixth straight North American victory, bogged down under the 124 pound top impost and finished a dismal last.
