

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

The Oregon Statesman, Salem, Oregon, Sunday, January 23, 1949

Interesting visitors in the capital are Mr. and Mrs. William R. Gosser and daughter, Mary, who are here from Munich, Germany. Their son, Mac, accompanied them home but was in Portland when the picture was taken. Mr. Gosser is chief, public welfare and displaced persons branch, office of military government for Bavaria and is returning to Munich after his leave for two more years. The Gossers are former Salem residents and are visiting with her parents, the O. O. McClellans, and with Mrs. Ralph Campbell. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Week Filled With Varied Social Events . . .

Members of the legislative contingent here during the current session are the incentive for much entertaining with the coming week filled with dinners, luncheons, teas and at homes.

Mrs. McKay at Home Tuesday

Mrs. Douglas McKay, wife of Oregon's governor, has set Tuesday afternoons as her day at home. All friends and members of the legislative set are invited to call during the afternoon at her Jerris avenue residence.

Governor and Mrs. McKay will be hosts for a dinner party on January 31 for members of the board of control and their wives, the president of the senate and speaker of the house and their wives.

President of the Senate William E. Walsh and Mrs. Walsh will be hosts for an informal open house Monday night at the Marion hotel between 6 and 8 o'clock. Members of the senate and their wives and the press have been bidden to the affair.

Event of Tuesday afternoon will be the buffet luncheon for which wives of the supreme court justices will be hostesses at the North Summer street home of Mrs. James T. Brand. The 12:15 o'clock affair is being arranged in compliment to the legislators' wives.

The Marion county legislation delegation and Mayor Robert Elfstrom will entertain at dinner Wednesday night at the Senator hotel at 6:30 o'clock for the senators and representatives. Hosts will be Mayor Elfstrom, Sen. Allan Carson, Sen. Frederick Lampert, Rep. W. W. Chadwick, Rep. Douglas Yeater, Rep. John Steelhammer and Rep. Frank Doerfler.

Review for Legislative Set

Invitations have been mailed to the legislators and their wives to a preview showing of Carl Hall's water colors at the Elfstrom Gallery on Wednesday afternoon between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock. Tea will be served during the showing. Mr. Hall will be present as will Mrs. Norman Huffman, advisor of the gallery. Arranging the affair are Mrs. Karl Becke and Mrs. H. G. Maisson, who have taken over the management of the gallery. The water colors will be on display for ten days and will be open to the public beginning Thursday.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry and State Treasurer and Mrs. Walter Pearson will be hosts at dinner on Tuesday, February 1 at the Newbry home on East Rural avenue in compliment to the supreme court justices and their wives.

At a revivals were said the past week to Mrs. John L. Sullivan and daughters, Frances Anne and Candice Lee, who moved to Madras, where Mr. Sullivan is in the oil distributing business. While in Salem the Sullivans lived at the Zena country home of her mother, Mrs. James W. Mott. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Reception Planned . . .

Promised to be one of the brilliant affairs of the season will be the city-wide reception to honor Governor Douglas McKay, Mrs. McKay and their family. The affair is planned for March and will be held at both the Marion hotel and Armory.

Mayor Robert Elfstrom has appointed Mrs. James T. Brand and Ralph H. Cooley as co-chairmen of the affair to be sponsored by the city of Salem. A meeting of the committee is set for Wednesday night at the city council chamber when plans will be made for the reception.

Waverly Dance . . .

Waverly dancing club will entertain with its second dinner dance of the season on Saturday at the Marion hotel. A buffet dinner will be served at 9 o'clock with dancing following to the music of Glenn Williams and his orchestra.

The committee arranging the affair includes Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brady, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Williams.

Among those entertaining before the formal affair will be Dr. and Mrs. Maynard C. Shiffer, who have invited a group of their friends to their home on North 18th street.

Welcome newcomers in the capital are Mrs. John R. McNicholas and daughters, Marilyn and Kathleen, who moved here this winter from Ann Arbor, Mich. Dr. McNicholas is associated with Dr. Carl W. Emmons. They have taken a home on Catterlin street. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Teas to Honor Legislators' Wives . . .

By Jeryme English, Society Editor

Two large teas are on the social agenda this week with wives of legislators the honor guests.

Rotary Tea at Elfstroms

For Tuesday afternoon is the tea for which Women of Rotary will be hostesses at the Fairmount Hill home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom with calling hours from 3 to 5:30 o'clock. Bidden to the affair are all wives of Rotarians, visiting Rotarian wives in the city during the legislature, and wives of legislators.

Members of the board of Women of Rotary are serving as hostesses. Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley and Mrs. Lawrence Ballmer. Receiving informally in the living room will be Mrs. Abner K. Kline, president of the group, Mrs. Elfstrom and Mrs. L. O. Arens.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Mrs. William L. Phillips, Mrs. Arthur D. Hay and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry. Mrs. Charles Fowler will invite guests into the dining room and assisting will be Mrs. Floyd Bressler, Mrs. John L. Franzen, Mrs. Clay Cochran and Mrs. Harry B. Johnson.

Town and Gown Tea on Thursday

Town and Gown will entertain with a large tea on Thursday afternoon for the wives of legislators at Lausanne hall with guests bidden to call between 3 and 5 o'clock. Mrs. Ronald Jones will introduce to the receiving line which will include Mrs. Ernest C. Richards, president of Town and Gown, Mrs. William E. Walsh, wife of the president of the senate, Mrs. Frank Van Dyke, wife of the speaker of the house, and Mrs. Melvin Geist.

Presiding at the tea urns the first hour will be Mrs. Earl T. Newbry and Mrs. Walter Pearson and pouring the last hour will be Mrs. Douglas McKay and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith. A group of coeds from Lausanne hall will assist in the serving.

Mrs. Lester Barr heads the directorate for the biennial affair and Mrs. William L. Phillips is co-chairman. Mrs. Melvin Geist is chairman of the hospitality committee and assisting are Mesdames Leonard Goldblatt, W. E. Kirk, Percy Kelly, Gayle Morris, Arthur D. Hay, L. H. McManhan, M. M. Magee, Nile Hilborn, Elmer Hildreth, H. M. Hayles, Cora B. Hartzell, Elizabeth Higbee, J. W. Hutchison, A. A. Keene, M. C. Kilsmeier, Frank Marshall, Elsie Miller, Harry N. Crain and Miss Laura Hale. Mrs. David Bennett Hill is chairman of the decorating committee and assisting are Mesdames Carl E. Nelson, Paul B. Wallace, George Schwarz, Brooks Moore, Albert Gragg, George Crockett, Ernest L. Crockett, Marion Moore and T. M. Medford.

The refreshment committee is headed by Mrs. Harry Miller and assisting are Mesdames Wallace Bonesteel, Harry B. Johnson, Claude M. Johns, George Hoffman, Frank Healy, Louis Lorenz, William F. Leary, Fred Halverson, W. E. Kimsey, J. L. Kennedy, W. E. Knower, Guy Hickok, Walter B. Minier, Donald Madison, Frank Myers, Charles Hudkins, E. C. Hamilton, Howard Hunsaker and Harry V. Collins.

Honor guest at the Salem Junior Woman's club annual past president's banquet Monday night will be Mrs. Arthur Roethlis, the immediate past president. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Past President's Banquet . . .

One of the highlights of the year for the Salem Junior Woman's club will be the annual past presidents banquet Monday night with Mrs. Arthur Roethlis, the immediate past president, the honor guest. The affair will be held at the Senator hotel at 6:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Cedric T. Reaney, club president, will preside and present the past president's pin to the honor guest. The guest speaker will be Mrs. Donald Madison, who recently returned from a tour of Europe and the title of her talk will be "As I See Europe."

Among the past presidents who will be present for the occasion will be Mrs. Lenard Kephart, Mrs. Clinton Standish, Mrs. Carlton Roth, Mrs. Fred C. Gast, Mrs. Roy Mink, Mrs. James Pike of Toppenish, Wash., Mrs. Leighton Holter, Mrs. Thorne Hammond of Portland and Mrs. Joseph A. Carlson.

Mrs. Wallace Wilson and Mrs. Sam Campbell are co-chairmen of the affair and assisting on the directorate are Mrs. Calvin Kent, Mrs. C. M. Collins, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. Harold Heiserman, Mrs. Fred Gast and Miss Elsie Furrer.

To Honor Clubs . . .

Mrs. F. W. Poorman will be hostess Monday night at her North Summer street home for the pleasure of her club. A buffet dinner will be followed by several hours of contract. Additional guests will be Mrs. William Gosser, who is visiting here from Munich, Germany, and Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell.

Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine has bidden members of her club to a one o'clock luncheon and afternoon of bridge on Tuesday afternoon at her Saginaw street home.

Visiting in the capital for several months is Mrs. Elsie Gonzo of Juiz de Fora, Brazil, pictured here with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Lachelle. Mrs. Gonzo, an English teacher, flew to the states from Rio de Janeiro before Christmas. Mrs. Lachelle, who came here as a bride, is an artist and is studying at the Portland Art Museum and her husband is completing his education at Oregon State college. (Kennell-Ellis photo).