

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS IN PICTURES

POSTER GIRL AT HOME—Linda Brown, 4, poster girl of the 1949 "March of Dimes" campaign for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, goes into the tub after a day of official visits. A victim of infantile paralysis a year and a half ago, Linda was cured through the Foundation.

AWAITING CALL—Candidates for places in a London production of the Folies Bergere wear fur coats over their bathing suits as they await the call of the director to audition.

KITTENS ON SHOW—Two-months-old Sealpoint Siamese kittens owned by Celia Hyney of Jamaica, New York, observe the observers from their perch at the Atlantic Cat Club show in New York City. More than 300 prize-winning cats from the United States and Canada were exhibited.

BACK IN HOLLYWOOD—Sessue Hayakawa, Japanese star of silent pictures, now back in Hollywood for the first time in 16 years, studies his role with Julia Fuzusaki.

BEACHGOER—Terry Moore, Glendale, Calif., movie starlet, had this picture taken at Miami Beach, she says, to prove that beach costumes look the same in Florida as in California.

1949 HITCHING POST—The Machine Age has caught up with the old hitching post and Dobbin is just a "vehicle." Here's "Vic" tethered in Webster, Mass.—to a parking meter.

ANKLEWATCH—Emogene Williams, motion picture actress, demonstrates an anklewatch for which a special window has been cut in a new stocking designed by Willy.

NO-BUMP PRAM—Small wheels attached to the rear axle keep baby's ride smooth even on stairs and street curbs in this carriage shown at the London Inventor's Club exhibition.

EASTERN LEADERS CONFER—Sardar Budh Singh (right), president of the Malayan Indian National Congress, confers with Gianl Gurumukh Singh Musafiri, president of the East Punjab Provincial Congress Committee at New Delhi. Budh Singh appeared on behalf of Malayan Indians.

CAMELMAIL ARRIVES—Daily delivery of mail carried by Clarence the camel was a feature of the Pan-Pacific Scout Jamboree at Melbourne, Australia.

FLAME SMOTHERER—Chicago firemen demonstrate a new apparatus, patterned after equipment developed by the services during the war. Chemicals from the "boom nozzle" smother flames and prevent them from spreading. The truck carries 4,500 pounds of carbon dioxide.

DAINTY HOBBY—Mrs. William W. Ache, of Los Angeles, shows some of the ceramics she designed since taking up the hobby a year ago. To make the lace dresses and trimmings Mrs. Ache uses real lace and embroidery which burn away during the firing leaving the imprint.

ICE INSTEAD OF WATER—Seagulls find the going a little difficult on the unfamiliar ice of a small lake in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, as they slide after bread crumbs thrown to them by four-and-a-half year old Judy Nelson.

LAST MINUTE TOUCHES—A wardrobe woman and a hairdresser give last minute attention to Diana Lynn before she goes on the set of "Bitter Victory" in Hollywood.

QUEEN ELIZABETH MODEL—Workmen in Northampton, England, put the finishing decorations on a 21-foot model of the liner Queen Elizabeth for the Cunard White Star Line office in New York. The model was carved from a 300-year-old log of mahogany weighing 7 tons.