

Church Plans Decision Set At Woodburn

WOODBURN, Jan. 28 — Proposed plans for the new Methodist church will be on display at the church Sunday from 1:30 to 5 p.m. A vote will be taken to determine whether or not the plans will be accepted by the congregation. Members of the W.C.S.C. will act as hostesses for the afternoon and will serve light refreshments. Mrs. Charles Buchanan, woman's society president, is in charge of arrangements.

The 87-year-old church burned last April and since that time the basement has been re-erected in order to hold services there. The proposed building will be of brick and tile veneer, will be 85 by 58 feet, and will be the present site of Young and B streets. Lyle Bartholomew of Salem is architect.

The remains of the old building will be torn down as soon as weather permits, according to James Livesay, a trustee. The basement will be filled in and the grounds landscaped. After this Sunday, services will probably be held in the high school auditorium. Much of the construction work will be done with volunteer labor. The present plans have been passed by the board of trustees, of which Charles Bruening is chairman.

Jefferson Church Programs Slated For Next Week

JEFFERSON, Jan. 28—Revival services will begin Sunday, February 6, "World's Service Day" at Jefferson Evangelical United Brethren church, continuing every night until February 18. The Rev. Lyle L. Leach of Lebanon will be evangelist. Sunday, January 30, is conference communion Sunday. Through the following week a pastor's conference and prayers will be held at 7:30 at private homes beginning Tuesday night at the parsonage. The Rev. A. E. Bashford is pastor.

A missionary service sponsored by the Youth Fellowship will be held Sunday night at the Methodist church. Rev. Walter Kropp of Albany will speak on "India, Penang, Singapore and Borneo," illustrating her talk with curios from mission fields.

Sunday morning sermon topic at Talbot Community church will be "The Christian and Baptism." Evening message is "Almost or Altogether?" Baptism will be observed at the evening service.

In April, 1947, two-thirds of U. S. farm houses still had no running water.

New Pastor

Church of God Will Install Pastor Sunday

The Rev. O. W. Clemens will be installed as pastor of Salem First Church of God at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, succeeding the Rev. H. A. Schlatter, who has been here for 5 1/2 years. Schlatter plans to remain in Salem and do a part of a religious work.

The Rev. Mr. Clemens comes from North Bend. He and his wife are graduates of Anderson college and theological seminary. He began his pastoral work at Porterville, Calif., in 1935. He has been for two years president of North Bend Ministerial association and is a member of the Lions club. They have three children and are residing at 1025 N. Church st.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlatter have been in the ministry for 37 years, including pastorates at Farler, Calif., Seattle, Spokane and Portland. He has been active in inaugurating several new congregations and in promoting Pacific Bible college. The installation program at the church, Cottage and Hood streets, will include the Rev. L. Johnson of Albany. Dr. O. F. Linn and Dr. A. J. Kempin, both of Portland, and the Rev. J. Gillespie of Salem. Mrs. Esther Bartholomew will sing a solo, and a selection will be given by the King's Business quartet, including Mr. and Mrs. Schlatter, Mr. Gillespie and William Knight.
