Mrs. McKay to Be A Tea Hostess . . .

By Jeryme English, Society Editor

There have been a round of parties the past week for the legislative contingent with many more on the social agenda during the coming weeks.

One of the larger affairs for this week will be the tea on Wednesday afternoon for which Mrs. Douglas McKay, Oregon's first lady, will be hostess at her Jerris avenue residence. The tea will honor the wives of legislators and calling hours are from 3 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Wayne Hadley, daughter of the hostess, will greet the guests at the door, and her sister, Miss Mary Lou McKay, will be home from Oregon State college for the tea.

Miss Alene Phillips will introduce the guests to Mrs. McKay and receiving with her will be Mrs. William E. Walsh of Coos Bay, wife of the president of the senate, and Mrs. Frank VanDyke of Medford, whose husband is speaker of the house. Assisting about the rooms during the afternoon will be the wives of Marion county's delegation, Mrs. Frederick Lamport, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. W. W. Chadwick, Mrs. Frank Doerfler, Mrs. Douglas Yeater and Mrs. John Steelhammer.

Presiding at the tea urns the first part of the afternoon will be Mrs. Hall S. Lusk and Mrs. Charles A. Sprague. Pouring the last hour will be Mrs. Earl T. Newbry and Mrs. Walter Pearson Mrs. E. M. Page will invite guests into the dining room, where Mrs. William L. Phillips will be in charge. Assisting will be Mrs. Roy S. Keene of Corvallis, Mrs. William S. Cole, Mrs. Richard D. Slater, Mrs. Harry U. Miller, Mrs. W. Wells Baum and Miss Dorathea Steusloff.

Mrs. McKay At Home Tuesday

Mrs. McKay, who is at home each Tuesday, will also be at home this week. All townspeople are cordially invited by the governor's wife to call informally during the afternoon at the McKay residence on Jerris avenue.

Governor and Mrs. McKay will be hosts at dinner Monday night at their home for the board of control and their wives, Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry, and State Treasurer and Mrs. Walter Pearson, President of the Senate and Mrs. William E. Walsh and Speaker of the House and Mrs. Frank VanDyke.

Slated for Wednesday night, February 9 will be the dinner party for which Governor and Mrs. McKay will be hosts in compliment to members of the legislative press and their wives.

Party Whirl . . .

Tuesday night Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry and State Treasurer and Mrs. Walter Pearson will entertain at dinner at the Newbry home on East Rural avenue for the pleasure of the supreme court justices and their wives.
