

The Social Whirl..

By Jerjme English, Society Editor
Several events are on the social agenda this week for members of the legislative contingent.

McKays To Be Hosts

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay will be hosts for a smorgasbord dinner Wednesday night at their Jerris avenue home at 6 o'clock for the pleasure of the legislative press and their wives.

Mrs. McKay, who has set Tuesday as her weekly day at home, invites all interested townspeople to call informally during the afternoon at the McKay residence.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl T. Newbry will be hosts at dinner tonight at their East Rural avenue for members of the board of control and their wives, Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay, State Treasurer and Mrs. Walter J. Pearson, President of the Senate and Mrs. William E. Walsh and Speaker of the House and Mrs. Frank Van Dyke.

Tea At Newbry's Wednesday

Mrs. Earl Newbry and Mrs. Walter Pearson will be hostesses for a tea on Wednesday afternoon at the Newbry home honoring wives of legislators and state officials' wives. Calling hours are from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock. Miss Shirlee Newbry, daughter of the hostess, will greet guests at the door.

Receiving with the hostesses will be Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. William E. Walsh and Mrs. Frank VanDyke. Assisting in the living room during the afternoon will be Mrs. Ralph Moody, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. R. H. Baldock and Mrs. Allan Carson.

Miss LaNita Pearson, daughter of the Walter Pearsons, will invite guests into the dining room, where Mrs. William E. Healy will be in charge. Presiding at the tea urns the first part of the afternoon will be Mrs. Hall S. Lusk and Mrs. Charles A. Sorague. Pouring the last hour will be Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea and Mrs. Raymond Olson. Assisting in serving will be Mrs. Carl Chambers, Mrs. John Steelhammer, Mrs. John Carson and Mrs. Angus Gibson of Junction City.

Alpha Chi Omega Tea..

Alpha Chi Omega alumnae will be hostesses for a benefit tea on Saturday afternoon, February 12 at the Fairmount Hill home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom. The affair is for the purpose of raising funds for the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, which is a major project of the alumnae. All interested persons are cordially invited to call during the tea hours between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. William L. Phillips, Mrs. William D. Croghan and Mrs. Gerald M. Robison, the latter two co-chairmen of the tea. Mrs. Forrest Bodmer will be at the ticket table. In the receiving line will be Mrs. Lewis Griffith, president of the alumnae group, Mrs. Elfstrom, Mrs. William E. Kirk, housemother at the active chapter, Mrs. Vera Jack and Mrs. Floyd Siegmund. Mrs. Burton A. Myers, Mrs. Mary Thomas and Mrs. William Carlson will assist about the rooms.

During the afternoon a musical program will be given including vocal numbers by Mrs. Agnes Drummond, Miss Bernice Isham and the Alpha Chi Omega sextet composed of the Misses Gloria Nandy, Annabelle Kropp, Margaret Powers, Mary Lynne Scott, Patricia Ryan and Ella Lou Ball.

Pouring during the afternoon will be patronesses of the sorority, Mrs. Lestle J. Sparks, Mrs. Harry V. Collins, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson and Mrs. Linn C. Smith. Serving will be the Misses Patricia Ryan, Joan Clouy, Jacqueline Johnson, Betty Ferguson, Priscilla Botkins, Patricia Howard, Helen Bonadauer, Gloria Nandy, Mrs. Rodney Fety, Mrs. Thomas Stevenson, Mrs. Mildred Thurston Henderson and Mrs. Edward Lind.

Mrs. James B. Young will be in charge of the dining room and inviting guests into tea will be Mrs. George Hanauka, Mrs. James Walton and Mrs. Vernon Gilmore. Mrs. Wallace Bonesteel, jr. will be in charge of serving and arranging the table will be Mrs. Robert E. Shinn and Miss Dorathea Steusloff.

Women's Section

SOCIETY • CLUBS • MUSIC

Winter Travelers . . .

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Power left Saturday for a week's stay in San Francisco, where Dr. Power will take his oral before the board of internal medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Baldock are leaving today for Seattle, where he will give a talk at the University of Washington on traffic engineering. They will return during the mid-week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ostrin and their children are leaving this week for a fortnight's stay at the C. H. Ostrin beach home at Nes-kowin.

Princesses chosen for the annual Hi-Y Sweetheart contest at Salem high school at the top of the heart are Anita Neuenschwander and Betty Brinkley and below, Evelyn Bishop. The identity of the sweetheart will be kept a secret until the night of the Hi-Y Sweetheart dance on February 12 at the high school gymnasium. (Kennell-Ellis photos).

Surprise Party...

Douglas Chambers was honored at a surprise party on his birthday Saturday night when Mrs. Chambers entertained at the G. F. Chambers home on North 13th street. Twelve of their friends were bidden to a dessert supper with several hours of bridge in play during the evening. The Valentine motif was used in decorating.

Dance Time . . .

Outstanding event of the week for members of the high school set will be the Hi-Y Sweetheart dance Saturday night in the high school gymnasium. Dancing for the formal affair will be to the music of Kurt Kenon's orchestra between 9 and 12 o'clock.

Highlight of the evening will be the announcement of the Hi-Y Sweetheart and the three princesses selected by the Hi-Y chapters are Anita Neuenschwander, Betty Brinkley and Evelyn Bishop. The identity of the sweetheart will be kept a secret until the dance. The Valentine motif will be used in decorating with a huge heart to center the dance floor.

Glenn Kleen, Hi-Y council president, is general chairman of the dance and committee chairmen include: Bruce McDonald, princess selection, Ed Knapp, Dennis Felke, programs and tickets; Curtis Humphrey, refreshments; Sam Weinstein, orchestra; Dick Wyatt, lighting; Bill Dokken, decorations; Gordon Sloan, cleanup; Gene Garver, patrons and patronesses; Jim Cooke, Bob Jones, John Ericksen, and Merline Schuize, publicity; Ron Walters, cloak room; and Dick Fuhr, false ceiling. Hosts for the affair are members of the three Hi-Y chapters, Arthur Cotten, Harrison Elliott and Abel Gregg.

Clubs Slate Parties

Two dancing clubs have slated dances for the coming weekend.

Friday night Wisteria club members will entertain with a dancing party at the Veteran's hall. Guy Albin's orchestra will play for dancing between 9 and 12 o'clock.

Heading the directorate for the Valentine dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Rollin O. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Silke, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sholseth and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aschenbrenner.

Among those entertaining before the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bale, who have invited guests to their Saginaw street home.

Town Club Dinner Dance

The Town club dinner dance will be an event of Saturday night at the Marion hotel ballroom. A buffet dinner will be served at 9 o'clock with dancing following to the music of Glenn Williams and his orchestra.

The Valentine motif will be used in decorating and the committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Leon Perry, chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulson, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Wood and Dr. and Mrs. Charles D. Wood. Hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeArmond, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Nicholson, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Quistad and Mr. and Mrs. Byron Mennis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert White will entertain before the dance. They have invited guests to call at their Candelaria boulevard home between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Benefit Slated . . .

Event of Thursday, February 17 will be the benefit card party and dessert luncheon for which members of the Salem Woman's club will be hostesses at the clubhouse at one o'clock. Bridge and pinochle or any other card game will be in play and guests are asked to bring their own table accessories. Proceeds from the affair will be used to assist the scholarship loan fund of the federation.

Mrs. Guy N. Hickok, president of the club, has appointed Mrs. George W. Alling as general chairman of the affair. Her committee members are as follows: Mrs. Bert A. Walker and Mrs. Harlan Judd, decorations; Mrs. Merle D. Travis and Mrs. Robert Hutcheon, ticket sale; Mrs. Albert C. Gragg heads the serving committee, assisted by Mrs. Estill L. Brunk, Mrs. Irvin F. Bryan, Mrs. Carl Chambers, Mrs. Ross H. Coppock, Mrs. Gerald Fisher, Mrs. Gregory Hoefliger, Mrs. Fred McEvoy, Mrs. Lawrence Osterman, Mrs. Donald L. Parker, Mrs. Grant C. Rogers and Mrs. Austin H. Wilson.

Mrs. Arthur Jones, Mrs. Clay Cochran and Mrs. Grant Rogers will have charge of the scores. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Travis or Mrs. Hutcheon.

Committee members, directly above, talking over plans for the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae benefit tea to be an event of February 12 at the home of Mayor and Mrs. Robert L. Elfstrom are left to right, Mrs. Gerald M. Robison, Mrs. Vernon Gilmore, Mrs. William L. Phillips and Mrs. William D. Croghan. Mrs. Robison and Mrs. Croghan are co-chairmen of the affair. (Kennell-Ellis photo).

Brilliant event of the month will be the annual Military ball to be sponsored by the Marion chapter, Reserve Officers association on February 19 at the armory. Pictured at the right with their wives formulating plans for the affair are the president and co-chairmen. Left to right are Lt. Col. Homer G. Lyon, jr., president of the chapter, Colonel Carl W. Nelson, chairman, Major Harlan Judd, assistant chairman, Mrs. Lyon, Mrs. Judd and Mrs. Nelson. (Kennell-Ellis).

To swell the scholarship loan fund of the Salem Woman's club, a benefit card party and dessert luncheon will be given on February 17 at the clubhouse. The directorate in charge pictured on the steps of the clubhouse includes left to right, Mrs. Bert A. Walker, Mrs. H. A. Judd, Mrs. Merle D. Travis, Mrs. George Alling, general chairman, and Mrs. Albert C. Gragg. (Kennell-Ellis photo).